Sunday morning the pastor preached from II Cor. XII: 2. "I know a man in Christ;" subject: "The Model Man." "A man in Christ;" the highest point to which any one can attain. There are a great many good points in men who are not in Christ, but the true Christian is a MAN in Christ. The man who is in Christ is a "new creature." Our religion is a part of our selves; the man who is in Christ will rise above worldly, personal interest. He is consecrated to a great work. He can check upon the bank of heaven in the name of Jesus Christ and get all needed supplies.

The man or woman who gets the greatest blessing is the one who gives themselves to Christ. Paul was a man in Christ who gave his whole life to the Master's cause and his work, after the lapse of centuries still goes on. John, the beloved disciple, was a man in Christ and through him the world has the apocalypse. Andrew, a man in Christ, brought his brother, Peter, to the Saviour and he became the leader of the disciples. Martin Luther won in the fight against Catholicism, and Moody against discouragements and handicaps, because they were men in Christ.

Young Christians need strong men and women in Christ to lead them to the highest attainments and successes in life. The world needs men and women raised up by Christ, made "new creatures," to shape its destiny—application: Be a MAN, a WOMAN, in Christ.

Subject for next Sunday, 11 a. m., "The Closeness of God," and at 7:30 the subject will be, "Ambassadors." Sunday school at 10 a. m. Read the latter clause of Numbers X: 29.

The editor of the HERALD gave us such a fitting write-up last week that we could not help but feel able to report again this week, and we are glad too for the privilege of reporting an increased interest in all the institutions of the local church.

The adage, "All is well that ends well," is in process of fulfillment, in this society, as the conference year comes to a close. Let us continue to keep the belts tight on the divinely propelled pulleys, by the infilling of Holy Ghost power.

The Excelsior and Builders Sunday school classes met at the parsonage on Tuesday evening for the regular business meeting, after which the evening was spent in a social way. The attendance was good and all enjoyed themselves so that we will want to come again.

There will be regular services on next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock; preaching services at 11 and 7:30, and young people's meeting at 6:30. We look for your presence and assure you a hearty welcome.

Six Thousand Applications for Concessions Filed

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Six thousand applications for concessions at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition have been filed with Director Frank Burt of the Division of Concessions and Admissions, and although only thirty-one contracts have been granted to concessionaires, the latter will expend more than two million dollars in preparing their attractions for 1915.

"It is safe to predict," said Director Burt, "that this Division when complete will represent an investment of ten million dollars and the employment of seven thousand people, which is far in excess of previous Expositions, their average investment having been seven million dollars with the employment of five thousand people.

"This is phenomenal as the Division of Concessions and Admissions of our Exposition will only have sixty-three acres devoted to concessions whereas other Expositions used from one hundred and four to one hundred and twenty-four acres for concessions.

However the success of this Division may be attributed to the fact that it will accept only that which represents what is best in the amusement world, small uninteresting "side-shows" are eliminated, only those that are educational and clean receiving the consideration of this Division.
