Local and Personal

Miss Woodcock, one of the students at the Normal, was called to her home at Grants Pass, at 2 o'clock this morning, by the death of her mother. W. R. Graham took her to Salem.

Mrs. E. D. Mason and son, Dick, are getting ready to go to Fern Hill, near Tacoma, Wash. They expect to start in a day or two and Mr. Mason expects to join them in the fall and that they will make their home at that place.

Bakery Changed Hands

The Monmouth Bakery again changes management, C. C. Mulkey again coming into possession, to succeed McNeill Bros.

The deal has been made and Mr. Mulkey will take hold next Monday, and slip back into the place he vacated some three years ago.

Mr. McNeill has not determined just what he will do but will not leave Monmouth for a while at least. He is an electrician and will try to get employment in that line of business.

Lebanon Homemade Exhibits

LEBANON, ORE., April 28.—The "made in Lebanon" show to be given May 2 by the Civic Club is receiving good support. Exhibits will be made by woodworkers, cement workers, tanners, plumbers, tailors, cooks and all other lines of workers and jobbers. The committee has been working among all classes to interest them in this event. The product of the pioneer as well as the modern product will be on exhibition.

Was Some Bird

An exchange tells of the wife of a Methodist minister in an Iowa town who had been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robins, the second Sparrow, and the present one is named Quayle. There are two young Robins, one Sparrow and two little Quayles, and the family live on Jay street. One would almost be forgiven for suggesting that the lady was a "bird."

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Alden M Andrews to Mamie Edna Brown.

Napoleon's Scholarship.

Napoleon was a poor speller, and his bad handwriting gave rise to the rumor that he wrote so purposely, to conceal the fact that he, the master of Europe, could not master French orthography. In the early days of the empire a man of mod-est aspect presented himself at court.

"Who are you?" asked Napoleon. "Sire," said the man, "I had the honor at Brienne for fifteen months to give writing and spelling lessons to your majesty."

"You turned out a nice pupil," exclaimed Napoleon in pretended anger, "and I ought to send you to jail. However, since it has not harmed me, I will give you a pen-sion."
