Oregon has more than 4500 registered automobiles, worth probably from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000. They do not seem to effect the value of the horse nor the market, as one who desires to purchase will learn.—Weekly Oregonian.

High School Faculty Elected

The school board has elected the following instructors for the high school for next year.

Principal, Mr. E. L. Keezel, of Philomath, and re-elected Miss Arnila Doughty and Miss Margaret McCoskey assistants.

Mr. Keezel is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and comes highly recommended from several different schools where he has taught in Oregon.

The teachers for the grammar grades in connection with the Normal training department have not been announced.

The high school senior class will number sixteen this year, and will hold their graduating exercises on the 5th. of June.

Lester Stone Fined.

It is easy to get into trouble, but not always easy to get clear of it.

Lester E. Stone took it upon himself to peel chittim bark on the lands of two of three persons near the Luckiamute a few days ago, and got into the toils of the law. He was taken to Dallas where he was given a trial and fined.

The fine was paid by his father, and the young man set at liberty. It is to be hoped that he will turn over a new leaf and act the man, and not bring more trouble and disgrace to himself and relatives.

Boy Shoots Sister in Leg.

Last Friday while P. O. Burbank was butchering hogs on his farm three miles south of here, he sent his little five-year-old boy to the house for his gun which he forgot to take with him when leaving. The little fellow secured the gun, which was a 22-caliber rifle, and started back to the house. He worked the ejector, not realizing that he was loading it at the same time. Seeing his sister not far away, the boy raised the gun to his shoulder, saying: "Look out, sister, I am going to shoot you so you can't walk." He pulled the trigger and the ball passed through the little girl's limb just below the knee. The ball went between the two bones without penetrating either. Dr. Hewitt was called to dress the wound, which he says is not serious.—Independence Enterprise.

American Angoras Going to Argentine.

Frank Harding, the noted Cotswold and Lincoln breeder of Waukesha, Wis., will soon start for Argentine Republic, South America, with a band of American high bred Angoras.

A large number of these come from the celebrated band of Wm. Riddell & Sons, Monmouth Ore., and are direct descendants of the famous Harris importation, and of the great South African bucks "Hobson's African" and "King Arthur 2nd."

Some of the younger stock is also related to "Riddell's Lad," the wonderful buck which sheared a $100.00 fleece two years ago.

THE HERALD carries butter paper and dairymen can get their paper nicely printed at small cost at this office.
