

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Zook, the paper hanger, will do your painting for you.

Wm. Riddell, Sr., was doing business in town yesterday.

Buy your split and sawed cedar posts from the Monmouth Lumber yard. 20 tf

Mrs. F. S. Schutz, of Portland, visited with Rev. and Mrs. Gueffroy over Sunday.

Mrs. U. G. Heffley was disposing of cherries in Monmouth and Independence yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winegar are in attendance at the Rose festival, at Portland, this week.

Monmouth Lumber yard will furnish you all kinds of building material at prices that are right.

Mrs. D. E. Stitt and daughter, Blanche, drove to Salem Monday morning, returning home in the evening.

Charles Chaney has purchased 20 acres of land from Horace Seeley near Independence and will locate there.

Mrs. Dr. L. L. Hewitt and son, Lavelle, of Independence, visited with relatives and friends in Monmouth Wednesday.

Jefferson Miller, of Ranier, Oregon, arrived here Wednesday on a visit to his sisters, Mrs. D. M. Hewitt and Mrs. Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stone with their daughters, Leila and Edith, motored to the Rose Carnival and will visit their daughter at The Dalles before returning.

Editor Clark, of the Independence Enterprise, and James Shelby Cooper Jr., his assistant, were transacting business in our city Friday of last week.

Allen Towns, from Antioch, was doing business in Monmouth Tuesday, and reported crops booming in his section, but that the rain Sunday was light.

W. W. Haines, of Eugene, came down the latter part of last week to visit his brother, J. A. Haines and other relatives. He returned home Wednesday.

J. L. Murdock, accompanied by his son, Frank, and family, left Sunday for his home in Portland. Frank will return Monday leaving his wife and child for a two or three weeks visit.

There was a large number of members from here in attendance at the Moose Lodge, at Independence, last Wednesday night, there being some special entertainment on this occasion.

J. A. Haines and twin brother, W. W., visited the Campbell twins at Dallas during the first part of the week. They were boys together and are claimed to be the two oldest pairs of twins in the state.

Members of the Christian church have been at work this week raising the building to construct the basement under it. They commenced operations Monday, and finished the task on Wednesday evening.

A number of young people left here early Sunday morning in rigs to spend the day picnicing on Teal Creek. They took Miss Armilda Doughty as chaperon and returned late in the evening having spent a very pleasant day.

The high school enjoyed a very pleasant outing Friday of last week in the way of a picnic on the Luckiamute. The Seniors were a party by themselves, taking the Misses Hazel and Mabel Lorence as chaperons, while the other three classes went together. They took well filled baskets and did not return home until eight o'clock p. m.

Grand Band Concert.

The Independence and Monmouth Bands will give a grand concert next Sunday afternoon in the Normal Grove, at 3 o'clock, for the benefit of the visitors for the commencement week. The boys are a little behind on their expenses, and they will take up a collection, so bring your purses along.

CRAVEN-HESSÉ WEDDING.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craven on Sunday, June 8, at 8:15 a. m. when their son, A. H. Craven, of this city, was married to Miss Beulah J. Hesse, of Bandon, Oregon. Rev. Tapscott, of Independence officiating. The ring ceremony was used. Those present were: The father and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael, Misses Hilma Anderson, Etta James, Gwendolyne Dicken, Emma Johnson, and Rose Lillie.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom accompanied by Misses Dicken, James and Lillie, departed for Independence where Mr and Mrs. Craven took the train for Portland and other points of interest.

The bride and groom are both well known in Monmouth, the bride being a graduate of the Normal school and the groom a successful business man of this city.

The HERALD joins the many friends of this estimable couple in congratulations.

MURDOCK-TATE

L. J. Murdock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murdock, left here last Saturday, for Wasco, Eastern Oregon, where he was united in marriage to Miss Florence Tate, on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Murdock has lived in this city for a number of years and is very popular in the circle of young people, while the bride is also well known here, having been a student of the Normal, of which the happy couple are both graduates. They will visit Mr. Murdock's parents in Portland and attend the Rose Carnival before coming here to make their future home.

The HERALD extends congratulations and best wishes.

Linn Bowersox, of Corvallis, is visiting his uncle, Dr. Bowersox, and family. He is on his way to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Sheak is expected here from Philomath Saturday to visit her daughter, Miss Edith Sheak, a Normal student.

C. S. Marks was in town yesterday on his way to Independence. He has purchased a gasoline threshing machine and will operate it this fall.

Miss Julia Iverson, who arrived here some two weeks ago to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Mary Halvorsen, went to Salem yesterday to spend a week visiting.

Mr. Hawkins, of Bellingham, Wash., a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wade, spent several days here this week looking over the country, with intentions of locating.

Dr. Bowersox and B. F. Baker left yesterday for Salmon River on a fishing trip. They will return Monday. Mrs. Bowersox is tending the store during the doctor's absence.

We should have given the high school a write up, but have not been able to get the data, and as for the water system, it is too

LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

Every Woman Will Want this magazine of Styles and Clohescraft

While our limited supply lasts

We Give It Free

It shows the latest New York and Paris Styles, styles for stout women, new styles for the little ones. It gives valuable hints on Millinery and Hairdressing and gives Correct Dress for all Summer Occasions. Get a copy now.

The V. F. Daniel Store

Canning Season

I carry a complete line of

Economy, Mason, and Golden State

Fruit Jars,

Lids, Caps and Rubbers.

Glass fruit dippers, 15c.

A. H. CRAVEN,

Monmouth, - - - Oregon

young yet to say anything about. However, the water supply is showing up good in the new well.

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 225 F St., Washington, D. C.

Be a Booster evry Day

POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

THOMAS BOULDEN, Proprietor

KEEPS ON SALE

Best Grade Chic Feed. Best Grade Grit, Bone and Oyster Shell. Best Grade Bran, Shorts, Barley and Oats. Best Grade Corn, Scrath Feed, Egg Food, at Lowest Cash Prices.

Garden Seeds in Package or in Bulk.

Will Pay Cash for Eggs and Poultry.

Monmouth, - - - Oregon

Boost For -

MONMOUTH