

With the Churches

Evangelical Church.

By W. A. GUEFFROY

We were cheated out of our time for last week's church notice by pleasant visitors and while we regret the absence of the notice we did enjoy the visit.

We have asked ourselves a number of times the question—does it pay to thus make mention of the churches? Do the people read what is written and profit by it? Well, we have the consolation to know that at least three different persons have read and have expressed to the writer their appreciation of the efforts that the churches are putting forth to reach the public, and in what was said they did not forget the editor and publisher of the HERALD who gives the columns of his worthy paper for this purpose every week.

We are sorry to loose for our S. S. and services the families of Compton, Barber and Herrington, by their removal from our midst. This causes quite a decrease in the attendance of our S. S. and our young people's society will also lose one of its faithful members, Francis Herrington.

The next greatest event in which all the world is interested is, "The Second World's Christian Citizenship Conference," which will be held in Portland, Oregon, June 29 to July 6.

Seventy-five to one hundred speakers of national and international reputation will discuss present day problems vital to the welfare of all nations.

The principal meetings will be held in the spacious Multnomah Stadium, sectional conferences in nearby auditoriums.

The conference will open with a general mass-meeting on the afternoon of June 29 with three sessions daily throughout the week except on the 4th of July.

On the morning of Independence day celebrated men, American and foreign, will speak, followed by a great civic parade and demonstration.

Low rates on all roads, good for the whole time of the conference and special rates for special days will be granted.

Men and women are cordially invited to attend all sessions and enjoy the advantages of this rare opportunity. This is the chance of a life time.

Registration may be secured in advance by sending your name and address to Dr. James S. McGaw, 212 Commercial Building, Portland, Oregon. The writer also has a number of certificates for registration and he would be glad to see all those that think about attending this conference in his study. The registration fee is $2.00, which secures reserved seats to all week day sessions of the conference and the report of addressees and proceedings as it shall appear in the monthly issues of the "Christian Statesman."

Accommodations may be had at the hotels at prices of from $1.00 to $5.00 per day, European plan, and in private houses about 50 cents per day for lodging and breakfast.

Services for Sunday, June 22, 1913:

Sunday School at 10 o'clock; preaching services at 11 and 8; Y. P. A. at 7. The morning subject will be "The Church at Thyatira," the evening subject not to be announced, and the Y. P. A., "Mission Work at Home and Abroad" (Missionary Tours) will be led by Miss Marvel. Miss Marvel, with her sister and father, have but recently come to us from eastern Oregon and we are very glad to welcome them in our midst.

We bid the incoming students for the summer school a special welcome to our services.

There was no service in the morning as our people wished to attend the Baccalaureate exercises at the college. We were very much pleased with that service. At 8 p. m., in the absence of the pastor, who is away on a vacation, Prof. Wallace, of McMinnville College, delivered an able discourse on the theme, "What are you worth?" The text was Luke 12:15.

The greatest man is the man who serves most. We may serve with hands, mind, heart and soul. The highest service which one can render is to impart righteousness. A man's worth can never be known until his soul service is known. When you go out of the world how much richer in righteousness will the world be for your having lived in it?

A man's real worth consists in what he gives to the world. If his service is uplifting it will glorify God through eternal years. If his work is debasing the bad influence will continue forever.

We were glad to see so many of Bro. Orrick's people in the congregation, and while their house of worship cannot be used as a place of meeting owing to building operations, they have a cordial invitation to worship with us.

Next Sunday Prof. Gardner, of McMinnville College, will preach both morning and evening. Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Everyone is rejoicing because of the progress on the church building. We regretted to have no services last Sunday. The regular services will be held next Sunday. We hope to be able to do the remodeling without missing more than one or two more Sunday services.

We are all sorry to say goodbye to the departing O. S. N. students. We wish them every merited success. Remember regular services next Sunday.

Famous Boys.

A boy used to crush the flowers to get their color and painted the white side of his fathers cottage in Tyrol with all sorts of pictures, which the mountaineer gazed at as wonderful. He was the great artist Titian.

An old painter watched a little fellow who amused himself making drawings of his pot and brushes, easel and stool, and said, "That boy will beat me some day." So he did, for he was Michelangelo.

A German boy was reading a blood and thunder novel. Right in the midst of it he said to himself: "Now this will never do. I get too much excited over it. I can't study so well after it. So here goes!" And he flung the book out into the river. He was Fichte, the great German philosopher.
