CAT MOTHERS CHICKS

Tabby was Jealous and Started Exodus of Flock.

The following is taken from the Cass City Chronicle and Mrs. John Schwaderer, who owns the cat and chickens mentioned in the article, is a daughter of Mrs. James Hunter, of this city:

L. I. Wood took a unique kodak picture Sunday morning of a cat mothering 15 little chickens at Schwaderer's Restaurant.

This is Tabby's second season as a chicken fancier. Last year she took care of a few of the little fellows, and this season her love for the feathered tribe so increased that she deserted her own offspring to mother another flock. Tabby not only showed a decided fondness for the chicks, but she was absolutely jealous of them. When too much attention was paid to the chicks by people who frequented the restaurant, the cat commenced to transfer the flock to another place, and she succeeded in carrying a few of the little fellows upstairs without the least harm to them, before the exodus was terminated by others.
