

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Zook the Painter, will hang your paper for you.

Cal Holem is nursing a good sized case of poison oak, this week.

David Korb, of Salem, was a business visitor to Monmouth Wednesday.

A large shipment of screen doors just in. Buy them at the Monmouth Lumber Yard.

Work on the new depot is progressing quite rapidly, the enclosure being now under cover.

W. E. Smith, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Monmouth, left Monday, for the coast to spend a couple of weeks.

Miss Olea Shore was picnicing on the Luckiamute last Sunday with Mrs. Nelson and family, of Independence, Mrs. Simons and family, and sister, and Mrs. Giles and family.

E. A. Rice, of Crabtree, was here last week and through the Tyler-Baker agency purchased W. P. Prophet's property in the East end of town. Mr. Rice will move his family here in about a month.

Mrs. Frank Geddes, of Hereford, Oregon, spent a couple of weeks in Monmouth, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ebbert, having come to see her father who has been very ill. She left for her home last Sunday.

Dick McClure arrived home Saturday, from Los Angeles, California. Dick had gone to Mill City, Oregon, to find employment and not succeeding to find what he wanted had gone to California, but finding conditions there too dull to suit him he returned to Monmouth.

Joe C. Clark and Misses Grace Walker and Lacy Copenhaver made a picnic excursion into the Teal Creek country, Sunday, and enjoyed a delightful trip with horse and buggy and a feast of good things to satisfy hunger as well as a pleasant outing among the scenes of nature.

C. D. Tyler and Ed Lorence had a joy-ride down the Fish-back hill Tuesday when the auto brake gave away near the top of the hill. The run down the grade was safely made, but railroad time is no comparison to the rate they traveled for about three-fourths of a mile.

Mrs. C. A. Davis came over from Dallas the latter part of last week and has been stopping with her mother, Mrs. R. Avery. Mr. Davis and his boys went over to the coast to look around for a change of location as Mr. Davis found himself unable to stand the employment he had been working at in the mill at Dallas.

Guy Scheible and Blanche Stitt and Lee Scheible and Lela Erickson visited the Luckiamute country above Falls City, Sunday, on a picnic and fishing excursion combined, having gone by carriage. They captured sufficient fish to serve for supper and returned home late in the evening well satisfied with the pleasures of the day.

During the past week we received a complimentary pass to the Third Annual Agate Carnival at Port Orford, Oregon, which takes place August 15 and 16 this year. However, on account of the greater expense of attending, we are not inclined to present our pass on that occasion, although Port Orford has a very fine agate beach and other scenery coupled with it makes it a delightful place to take a sea-shore outing.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters.
