

THE ANGEL OF PATIENCE

To weary hearts, to mourning homes,
God's meekest angel gently comes;
No power has he to banish pain,
Or give us back our lost again;
And yet in tenderest love our dear
And heavenly Father sends him here,
There's quiet in that angel's glance,
There's rest in his still countenance!
He mocks no grief with idle cheer,
Nor wounds with words the mourner's ear;

But ills and woes he may not cure,
He kindly trains us to endure.
Angel of patience! sent to calm
Our feverish broods with cooling balm;
To lay the storms of hope and fear,
And reconcile life's smile and tear;
The throbs of wounded pride to still,
And make our own our Father's will!
Oh thou who mourned on thy way,
With longings for the close of day—
He walks with thee, that angel kind,
And gently whispers, "Be resigned;
Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell
The dear Lord ordereth all things well!"
JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER.

With the Churches

Christian Church.

By H. F. JONES.

The services of next Sunday will be of special interest. At 11 o'clock in the morning Mr. Sheldon, state superintendent of the Anti-saloon League, will speak. All who are interested in the great war that is being waged against the licensed saloon should hear him.

In the evening at 7:30 the minister will deliver a special Christmas sermon.

C. E. at 6:30. Young and old are invited to attend this helpful service.

The new seating will be completed for the services of next Sunday. This will afford comfortable seating for all who come. The new heating plant is working as anticipated, so we invite you to a cozy, homelike house for the services of the Lords day.

The Bible School at 10 o'clock Sunday morning affords an hour of worship and instruction to both old and young.

Evangelical Church

By W. A. GUEFFROY

Lectures and revival services in full swing. Have you been there? If not, you have surely missed the chance of your life. The good Old Book declares, "That the truth shall make you free," and again, Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life, and no one cometh unto the Father but by me," and him whom, "the Son maketh free, is free indeed."

If you want to know what truth is, come to the meetings. Truth hurts some people but injures none. God wants us to be free, you know you ought to be free and Evangelist Shepherd is here to help you by the grace of God.

Pass the good word along. Everybody is more than pleased and while we leave the results with God we do believe that a real revival has started in our midst. We have been praying for and now we invite all to come and get right with God.

The Sunday School will give a Christmas entertainment in this church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 24. An excellent program has been prepared and the public is cordially invited.

A Mission Study Class was organized by the Ladies of the Evangelical Church, consisting of seventeen members. They will take up the study of the book entitled, "The New America," and will hold their first meeting on January 6, 1914, at the home of Mrs. Halvorsen. The following were elected officers: Mrs. Dawson, president and teacher; Mrs. Gueffroy, vice-president, and Mrs. Canning, secretary and treasurer.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE FARMERS' WEEK

December 8 to 13, 1913

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.

Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

WINTER SHORT COURSE

January 5 to 30, 1914

The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on FARMERS' CO-OPERATION, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address

The Gift Of Magic

There is magic in the Electric Toaster. It turns a piece of ordinary bread into a glorious, golden piece of toast right before your eyes, without fuss or effort, and sets free other little fragrant spirits that take hold of jaded and faded, tired and sick tastes till they say: "Um-m- how good it smells. I will have a slice of that."
