Airlie Notes

Mr. McAdams, who has been working in William's confectionary, left on the train Sunday P. M.

The rural mail carrier, who goes from this place every morning, said it was almost impossible to carry the load which comes thru the mail, over the roads which he travels, this time of the year.

Mr. Frank Ray and little son, near Peedee, have been quite ill.

John McBee is building a house for his hired man to live in.

Mr. Nendel is doing some repair work on his old barn.

Mr. Thorn took a trip to Airlie last Saturday.

Doc Butler and Bill McAdams went hunting last Friday but did not kill any thing but time.

They are getting along nicely with our new depot, it being nearly finished.

Ask Doc about his pleasant dream last Friday night.

Prof. Haley was in Dallas, Friday, attending the Principals Club meeting. He reported a fine supper.

A number of Airlie people were at Independence, Thursday, doing Xmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lewis returned from Portland, Monday, where they have been attending the Stock Show since Friday.

Miss Snedeker was in Dallas last week for the teachers examinations. Miss Edna Conn substituted as primary teacher the three days she was away.

The Misses Ruby Jones and Helen Conn spent Wednesday in Independence.

Mrs. George McGuire, of Albany, spent the week end with her daughter, Miss Lionee, who received quite a serious injury from a fall a week ago Sunday.

A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION
Mr. Haley, Dr. Butler and John Wienert are receiving donations and receipts, we understand, for the purpose of purchasing more extravagant curtains for the Cosy Corner Apartment.

The High School is preparing with great zeal for a general review which the High School teachers are planning on Wednesday afternoon before Xmas.

The Domestic Art class have been very busy the last few weeks preparing Christmas gifts.

The Eighth Grade have finished some attractive history booklets.

The Airlie Manual Training class have made a great change in things at the school house. They have built three large tables, which are considered very nice, and have finished drawing a gate model in which they aim to finish making the model of fine wood, and be able to show people what they are doing at the Dallas fair next fall.

The pupils of the High School appreciate very much the new laboratory apparatus which the district has provided them. It includes apparatus for Chemistry, Physics and Agriculture experiments.

HAIR SWITCHES made from combings. Enquire at this office.
