LODGE MEMBERS BANQUET

On Monday evening at the close of the I. O. O. F. Lodge, the members and a few invited guests were tendered a banquet by the members of the Rebekah Lodge. Shortly after the lodge closed a short and interesting program was given, after which a grand march was formed, and led by the Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge and the Noble Grand of the I. O. O. F. to the banquet hall where a bounteous repast was awaiting them, and to which all did justice.

At the close of the banquet the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were toasted in a very fitting manner by Mr. J. B. V. Butler, followed by a toast to the Rebekahs by Mayor Powell. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing, and all report a pleasant time.

And Quickly.

Mrs. Newbride came hurriedly into her husband's study one morning. "Herbert, dear," she said, "this recipe for lemon pie says to sit on a hot stove and stir constantly."

"Well, Alice," replied her doting husband, "if you do sit on a hot stove I think you will find that you will stir constantly." — Cleveland Leader.
