

LET'S

Let's be more earnest, beginning today;
 Earnest in labor and earnest in play;
 Earned attention and earnest in thought,
 Doing and thinking the things that we ought.
 Let's each be earnestly honest with each;
 Let's be sincere and well-meaning in speech;
 Let's know so very much worth, while
 and clean;
 We'll never talk about anything mean.
 Let's be doing we'll never have time
 For deeds that belittle, tales that be-grime.
 On our own track let's all be so intent
 There'll be no moment unworthily spent.
 Let's find so much that's uplifting and true;
 Wise and constructive to busy the mind,
 That thought is suspicious, unfriendly,
 and wrong.
 Cannot have judgment and cannot belong;
 Now, each one of us has some duties
 to do.
 Can't do them and those of other folks too.
 So let's do our own, and with all our might.
 And while we're doing them let's do them right.
 True, there be neighbors with motives in
 their eyes,
 Let's be content and not criticize.
 True, there be many afflicted with flaws;
 But let's not judge them, because well, because.

With the Churches

Evangelical Church

By W. A. GREGORY

Had very good services on last Sunday. Also excellent attendance for Sunday school, preaching services, and especially so for Y. P. A. Let the good work go on.

Next Sunday evening Mr. Sheldon, of the Anti Saloon League, will occupy the pulpit. Some of the people of Monmouth have heard him before, but I am sure you want to hear him again. He is a strong man in his place.

Prophetic Conference

The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago is planning an International Prophetic Conference, February 24 to 27, the fifth only of its kind in the history of the country, the second having been held in Chicago in 1886. Among the themes to be discussed are the Premillennial Coming of Christ, and the relation of that event to Missions, Evangelism and Practical Christian Work. They will also deal with modern delusions of a spiritual kind and suggest their corrective from the Biblical and Theological point of view. Professors, Bible teachers, Pastors, missionaries, evangelists and editors from all parts of the United States and Canada are to take part.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstractors.

Of Public Interest

The editor has received from Carl D. Babcock, a member of the State Industrial Accident Commission, a copy of the Workmen's Compensation Act, which was passed almost unanimously by the last Legislature, held up by the referendum and approved by the people on November 4th by a vote of more than two to one. Included with the law, is the report of the Commission appointed by Governor West to draft the bill. The law became effective immediately after the election in so far as the organization of the Commission was concerned. The insurance features of the Act, however, do not become operative until July 1, 1914.

The law provides for the creation of the Industrial Accident Fund, to be made up by contributions from employers, workmen and the State.

Two classes of occupations are defined in the Act and are designated as Classes A and B. In Class A, the rate of payment by the employer is 3 per cent and by the employee one-half of 1 per cent. In Class B, the employer pays 1 1-2 per cent and the employee one-fourth of 1 per cent. In Class A, both the employer and workmen are entitled to exemption when the individual employer has to his credit, 3 per cent of his annual pay roll and no accidents have occurred in his plant, while under Class B, the amount required to be maintained by the employer in the accident fund is 1 1-2 per cent of the pay roll.

The law is elective, both in its application to the employer and employee, either of whom may elect to come in or stay out, but employers in any of the hazardous occupations, who elect not to take advantage of the Act, are deprived of the common law defenses of contributory negligence, fellow servant liability and assumption of risk in any action for damages by their employees. Workmen who reject the Act lose the benefits provided.

The Oregon law provides a liberal schedule of compensation for injured workmen and for the beneficiaries of workmen who lose their lives in industrial accidents. The Act also provides for first aid to injured workmen in an amount not to exceed $250 in any one case.

Any one interested in the subject can obtain a copy of the law by writing the Commission at Salem.
