Mayor P. H. Johnson, Allen T. Clark and our venerable townsman, D. M. Hampton, gave Independence a visit by auto, last Wednesday and as word had reached here that some 38 I. W. W.'s were marching on our sister town it looks somewhat as if there was collusion somewhere, and especially so since the party has given out that they elected Friend Hampton as speaker of the delegation. However, to be consistent we think they should have traveled in like manner as the comrades do.

MONMOUTH TEAM WON

Before a large good-natured crowd of enthusiastic basket-ball fans in the High School Gymnasium, Saturday evening, the local high school team won from Independence second team, 17-4.

This is the second game played with this team from the neighboring city. In the first game, the Monmouth team was defeated by a small margin, but at that time the team had been under a coach only one week. The team has improved very rapidly, winning from Dallas second team two weeks ago, and turning the former defeat into a one-sided victory last Saturday.

The visitors played good clean ball, but were out played from the beginning by the fast passing, and consistent team work of the locals. Sensational passing and goals from the field at critical times furnished the fans with plenty of thrills. The game was particularly free from roughness and fouls; four fouls only were called, two on each team. A fine spirit prevailed both on the side lines and in the teams. McKinney of Independence refereed, Craven umpired the game.

Monmouth—Evens, Mulkey, Daniel, and Lorence. Thompson and Haley, subs.

A lively crowd came over from Independence for the game. Principal Bones and Miss Wheldon of the Independence high school with several students were among those cheering the visitors.

After the game, the girls of Monmouth High entertained the two teams, and visitors, with games and followed with delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake, olives, ice cream and punch.

A game for this week end is arranged for with the team from the Capital Business College of Salem. The high school team is working hard under their coach, and are showing up well. Coach Craven was well pleased with the practice Wednesday evening, and said of the game with the Business College, "The boys will go up against a bigger, heavier team, and they are tackling a hard proposition, but they are going out for that game and should get it. The boys will make up for weight and size in quickness and team work." This game promises to be a fast one, and will be one of the best games played here this season.

Dedication Of Church

The building has been remodeled and enlarged at a cost of some three thousand dollars and is ready for dedication. A series of meetings are planned to commence immediately after the dedication and to be continued for some time.

To The Public

New resolutions belong to the New Year, and I have resolved that I cannot do business on a credit system and beginning today will start on a cash basis. By so doing I can do better by my patrons and for myself.

Thanking you for past patronage I still solicit your trade and good will and wish you a prosperous New Year, and I will be pleased to have those indebted to me to come and settle.

Yours respectfully,
1812 THOMAS BOULDEN.
