Local and Personal

J. F. Smith was a Monmouth visitor Saturday.

A. J. Shipley was in Monmouth Saturday on business.

Zook, the paper hanger, will do your painting for you.

Mr. Conn, of the firm of Simpson & Conn, of Airlie, was in Monmouth Wednesday.

Z. A. French, of Airlie, was doing business in town on last Monday. He has been shipping potatoes to Independence.

Miss Mable Johnson visited Independence friends Friday evening and attended the dance given by the Wacontas Dancing Club.

J. L. White, local manager of the Oregon Power Company, was looking after the company's interests in Monmouth Monday.

Rexall remedies are all guaranteed to do what they are aimed for. Money back if they are not satisfactory. PEKKINS PHARMACY.

James Gentle spent Sunday with the folks at home. He is taking the short course at Corvallis. Mr. Gentle is full of praise for the excellent assistance the College of Agriculture is offering the farmers of the state. He is the oldest member of the young dairy firm of Gentle Bros., at Independence, and is getting all the help he can for the firm's use.

Mrs. Riley Craven, President of the Dallas Womans Club, was entertained by the Social Hour Club at the home of Mrs. H. C. Ostien Wednesday afternoon. About 18 members were present and enjoyed a very interesting talk given by Mrs. Craven her subject being the work which the Womans Club is doing. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.
