

HE DUG

He wanted a job, and, like everything else,
He wanted a good one, you know; Where his clothes would not soil and his hands would keep clean,
And the salary mustn't be low.
He asked for a pen, but they gave him a spade,
And he half turned away with a shrug, But he altered his mind and seizing the spade

He dug.

He worked with a will that is bound to succeed,
And the months and the years went along,
The way it was rough, and the labor was hard,
But his heart he kept filled with a song, Some jeered him and sneered at the task, but he plugged
Just as hard as he ever could plug;
Their words never seemed to disturb him a bit.

As he dug.

The day came at last when they called for the spade
And gave him a pen in its place;
The joy of achievement was sweet to his taste
And victory shone in his face.
We can't always get what we hope for at first—Success cuts many queer jigs,
But one thing is sure—a man will succeed—

If he digs.

With the Churches

Evangelical Church

By W. A. GUEFFROY

We were somewhat disappointed not to have the Mr. Sheldon, of the Anti-saloon league with us as had been announced on last Sunday evening, but he was ably represented by the attorney of the Anti-saloon league for the State of Oregon, a Mr. Baker, of Portland.

The Anti-saloon league and the forces that make for righteousness have been doing a great work within the last few years, and Oregon is to be the center of attack for 1914 along the lines of state-wide prohibition. We are out to win, bless God, and victory is in sight. How the old serpent does squirm and wriggle when cornered.

SERVICES FOR SUNDAY, JAN. 25, 1914

Airlie Notes

We are very glad to state Miss Snedeker, our Primary teacher, successfully passed the Teachers examination held in December.
Since beginning her work last September, she has won the admiration of her pupils as well as of the entire community.

Mr. Shewey conducted the Eighth grade examination. There were eleven in the class who wrote papers on geography and Physiology.

Linn Jones is now attending High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrick and three daughters, Bernice, Margaret, and Theresa took dinner with Mrs. Ulrick's mother, Mrs.
Caughey, Sunday.

Miss Snedeker and Miss Whitman spent Saturday in Salem, returning home by way of Dallas on the "New Train."

Raymond Williams came home Wednesday. He has been working with the surveying crew.

Walter Kerr passed through town this week, on his way to Earl Brown's.

O. A. Wolverton, of Monmouth, was in town Thursday.

E. C. Caughey is expected to return home soon.

Mrs. Hedgepath and children, from Hoskins, are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Rose, this week.

Carl and Frank Story spent the week-end in Airlie, returning to Corvallis Sunday evening.

Mr. Weinert was in town
Wednesday.

Mr. A. R. Lewis and Lewie Caughey returned home Monday from down about Independence where they have been working with the log drive.

Billie McAdams reports he had a fine drive Thursday. Mr.
Williams sent him out provided with hammer and nails to do some repairing on the farm.

There was a very large crowd at church Sunday evening. Mr.
Woods gave an excellent address.

Miss Zelma Williams has been ill for several days.

Airlie was honored by a great show Friday evening. A large crowd was reported to be present.

Everybody in Airlie seems to appreciate the new train service.
At any rate it appeared so Sunday afternoon.

The Simpson Logging Co. say that they had a good driving water and that they got all the logs out of the pond at camp, and have about two or three million feet in the boom at the mouth of the river.

Airlie is a great shipping point.
It has shipped out several car loads of wood this week.

Miss Isabel Peterson has been visiting her cousins, Misses Edna and Helen Conn. She returned to her home in Parker Friday.

Use The Safe Electric Light It Guards Your Family

Electric lighted homes have no dangerous lamps for children to upset--no matches lie around for chubby hands to find.

Electric light consumes no oxygen and gives off no noxious odors. The atmosphere is pure and wholesome--inducive to sound sleep.
