Tuesday morning gave us our second turn of snow and although the day was squally the snow did not linger long. The sun came out too strong at times.

C. G. Griffa has been installing the plumbing in C. H. Newman's new house this week. Mr. Newman is having it done up in modern style and will move into it in the near future.

Asa B. Robinson, our genial county clerk, was married Tuesday evening, the 27, to Miss Ivy Burton, of Independence, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents. After the ceremony the happy couple left presumably for Portland. After Feb. 9th, they will be at home in Dallas.

Airlie Notes

The Standardization exercises which were held at the Airlie school house, Wednesday p. m., January 21, proved to be a decided success. The program for the afternoon included three chemical experiments by the Chemistry class, milk testing, and exercises by a few of the pupils from the grades.

Mr. Seymour was present and after presenting the school with the Standard Banner, gave an address presenting work which boys and girls should do for the County and State fairs next Fall. A boys' and girls' Industrial Club was organized and officers were chosen. A short talk was also given by the chairman of the school board, Mr. J. F. Ulrich. His subject was, "What Parents Owe to the School."

A few minutes recess was then given for the judging of the cakes and bread which had been brought by pupils. First, second and third prizes were given for both the bread and cake. Many parents and tax payers were present.

Ask Billy Mc. who he has been holding the umbrella over?—Explain.

L. C. Caughey was not able to attend work Wednesday.

Dorothy Turner was reported on the sick list and was not able to attend school.

Happy Cooper was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

The janitor of the school has been keeping things just spick and span since the inspector was here.

Mrs. W. E. Williams, Jr., has been quite ill for the past two weeks.
