

DISAPPOINTMENT

"He performeth the thing that is appointed for me."—Job 13:14.
 "Thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass."—Job 14:5.
 "Disappointment—His appointment." Change one letter, then I see That the thwarting of my purpose Is God's better choice for me. His appointment must bring blessing Though it may come in disguise; For the end from the beginning, Open to his wisdom lies.
 "Disappointment—His appointment." Whom? The Lord's, who loves me best, Understands and knows me fully, Who my faith and love would test; For like loving earthly parent, He rejoices when he knows That his child accepts unquestioned, All that from his wisdom flows.
 "Disappointment—His appointment." "No good thing will he withhold." From denials oft we gather Treasures of his love untold. Well he knows each broken purpose Leads to fuller, deeper trust, And the end of all his dealings Proves our God is wise and just.
 "Disappointment—His appointment." Lord, I take them, then, as much, Like the clay in hands of potter, Yielding wholly to thy touch. All my life's plan is thy moulding, Not one single choice be mine; Let me answer unrepining, Father, 'not my will, but thine.'—Belfast Witness.

With the Churches

Christian Church.

By H. F. JONES.

Many cities are instituting a "Go to Church Sunday." It may be better than not going at all. Let us make it unanimous that Monmouth make every Sunday a "Go to Church Sunday."

Last Sunday's services were well attended. We are glad to see so many of the aged ones at the services.

You may make a mistake if you invest your money in stocks and bonds or real estate. You cannot lose if you invest your powers in Christian living.

We wish to make public acknowledgement of our appreciation of the splendid service being rendered by Mr. Dunton as choir director.

All of the services of the church will be at the usual hour next Sunday. A most cordial invitation is extended to all who have no church home to find one with us. It is our desire to serve the community in every way a church and minister should.

The morning hour will be given to the children and young people next Sunday. We would like to see the house filled at this service. Object lessons and illustrations that none will forget will be used to impress the truth. Each child is asked to bring a string as long as he or she is tall. The children from the Seventh and Eighth grades, under Miss Hoham's direction, will furnish special music. Come early so as to secure a good seat.

Next Sunday evening the minister will speak on "The Confusion of Voices."

The subject at the young people's service will be "Home."

We noticed with pleasure the increase of our Sunday School over that of the last two Sundays. Smallpox is dying out and we hope to see everyone of the scholars present and on time next Sunday.

Somebody's New Year resolution needs reviving. Is it yours? Better resolve again and begin to put the resolution in practice by attending some church next Lordsday. Shall we have an

In their big fight for a pure water supply Pendleton people will next vote on a forty thousand dollar bond issue.

Work has begun on the first section of the Pacific Highway from Medford to Central Point—concrete with a granitoid surface.

Marion county is awakening from the sleep of ages and will vote on an $850,000 good roads bond issue.

Wagner's Portrait.

When Wagner was in England supervising the first production of his operas, the music enthusiasts commissioned the artist Herkomer to paint the musician's portrait, but Wagner was dashing about in such a state of frenzy that he repelled impatiently every attempt to get him to give a "sitting." Still, Herkomer stuck to him like a limpet, fed with him, walked and talked with him, watched him conduct his orchestra, write music and read books. At last, when every attempt to secure a "sitting" had failed, Herkomer rose early one morning, painted with frenzied speed all day, spent a short night in restless sleep, rose early again and painted furiously, till on the second evening he sat down exhausted—but with his picture finished. Wagner was called in and threw up his hands in amazement. "Ah!" he cried. "Wonderful! That is exactly how I would like to look if I could."
