William Cadle Buried

Dallas, Or., March 4.—William Cadle, aged 65 years, was buried here today. He was one of the best-known residents of the country east of Dallas; was born in Tennessee in 1848, and before coming to Oregon, a few years ago, had held numerous official positions under both the state and Federal governments. He leaves a widow, three sons and one daughter, all residents of Polk county. Funeral services were in charge of the Masonic lodge of Rickreall, of which he was a member.

Dallas, Or., March 4.—Fifteen members of the student body of McMinnville College came to Dallas and put on a minstrel show at the Armory last night for the benefit of the Baptist church. Professor Wallace acted as interlocutor and Rev. Owen Day, pastor of the Dallas Baptist church, and H. Cox were the end men.

The Ghost Locomotive

By THOMAS R. DEAN

The address of a president of a society for the advancement of science containing a statement that was taken to reflect favorably on the investigations of societies for psychical research has revived the interest in ghost stories. Now that scientists are beginning to look with more favor, or at least with less indifference, upon ghosts these stories will be more likely to begin again to come from the graveyard where scientific contempt has for many years buried them. Here is one that has recently been resurrected.

Nearly a quarter of a century ago, away out on the Canadian Pacific railroad, Bill Burton, while driving his engine on a misty night over a road that had been washed by heavy rains for four days, came suddenly upon a landslide. Bill reversed the lever and jumped, striking his head on a boulder, and was instantly killed. The locomotive stopped within a few feet of the slide, then began to back. There was nothing behind it but a caboose, in which were two firemen playing seven up. They noticed the shock, but, being in-

OREGON WOMEN FORM FIRST POLITICAL CLUB; WILL VOTE FOR MAN, NOT PARTY

The first women's club ever organized in Oregon in behalf of a candidate for office, so far as known, was put on foot in Baker County recently, when the Dr. Smith for Governor Club became a reality. More than fifty women of Pine Valley, enrolled as charter members, and it was expected that as many more would add their names to the roll within a few days. Pine Valley is ten miles from Copperfield, the scene of Governor West's celebrated raid.

The Baker County women have adopted as their slogan, a continuation of Governor West's policies of law enforcement, and they have espoused the name of Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, because of his public endorsement of the Governor's work along this line.

At the first meeting of the Club, Mrs. Maud Brown was elected President, and Mrs. Lucia B. Clemens was elected Secretary. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the women believed in a law enforcement, and in continuing the good work so well begun by Governor West's administration. They declared that they would vote for Dr. C. J. Smith.

HELD MAP COMPANY'S M/F

Accurate In Every Detail And Invaluable To Any Person Engaged In Business

The Heald Map Company, of Portland, has recently submitted to business people of Salem proofs of the combination plat of Salem and vicinity and so well pleased were the local men that many of them doubled and, in some instances, trebled their orders.

O. J. Sand, sales manager, is located at 540 State street, where he will be glad to discuss the map with anyone interested.

The Heald Map Co., with branch office at Salem, has under compilation the most accurate, complete and useful plat of Salem and vicinity ever attempted, consisting of townships 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 South, Ranges 1 East, and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 West, comprising the greater part of Polk and Marion counties, the south half of Yamhill and part of Clackamas counties. The vicinity plat will take in the towns of McMinnville, Woodburn, Silverton, Independence, Stayton, Dallas and Salem, and all other towns in these townships.

This plat will show all township sections and quarter sections, numbered and indexed; all steam and electric lines and proposed ones; all rivers, creeks, and principal bridges, from U. S. government survey. Game lines, school district lines, etc., showing all churches, school houses and postoffices in their respective locations named and indexed.

All state and county roads will be drawn to scale and named with rural routes out of all principal towns named separately with arrow points to show the direction in which they run. Showing property owners, the township section and quarter they live in; the rural route and rural route box number, telephone number, size of ranch in acres, etc., will all be named and indexed and put in a handy pocket book form as a key to the plat showing location of ranches, etc. A mailing list will be classified separately with names in rotation on the different routes. In addition, business people in towns will be named and classified in this book to be used as a business directory.

On the back of the vicinity plat will be shown Salem, the Capital City, showing all streets, alleys, lots and blocks and additions named, numbered and indexed showing the exact size of every lot, both width and length, donation land claim lines, etc. In addition will show all public buildings, school houses, churches, warehouses, manufacturing plants, R. R. station, state institutions, all drawn to scale, named, numbered and indexed, also showing all fire exits, fire hydrants, and street car lamps. Ward lines and original donation land claim lines.

The plat will be 42x52 inches in size, engraved in colors on heavy bond paper with cloth bound edges and heavy moulding top and bottom.

The standard of the Heald Map Co. is accuracy and legibility. This work has the written endorsement of Salem's, Silverton's, Dallas', and Woodburn's leading business men, who have thoroughly examined our recent work of Portland and found it to be accurate in every detail, and also the endorsements of banks and many prominent citizens are included. Future deliveries can only be guaranteed upon signature of these plats. Place your order now and take advantage of the co-operative rate of $5; $1.50 deposit and $3.50 upon delivery.

Persons desiring maps can leave their orders at the HERALD office. Adv.
