L. H. Treat has sold his house and lot on College street to Mr. Wattenberger. Mr. Treat will move into Allen Johnson's house on the corner of Clay and Warren streets.

The Normal basket ball team will go to Philomath Friday night to play with the team there. Report says that this is the last game of the season for the Normal team.

Mr. O. C. Zook and daughter, Dora, went to McMinnville yesterday to visit Mr. J. H. Wheeler and wife, Mrs. Wheeler being a daughter of Mr. Zook. Mr. Zook will return in a day or two, but Dora will stop with her sister for a couple of weeks.

The appointment of a postmaster for Monmouth is still held in abeyance, and there is no guessing as to whom the lucky one will be. There are five applicants on the anxious seat, and there seems no good reason for keeping them there unless the appointive powers are waiting to see if there will be others wanting the job.

We are pleased to announce that our former townsman, J. S. Prime, is again a citizen of Monmouth, having been reappointed as master of the Southern Pacific station here. Mrs. Prime and children came up Sunday from Roseburg and Mr. Prime came Wednesday. Every business man in Monmouth is rejoicing at his return.

A. A. Moore was doing business in town Wednesday.

The Commercial club has petitioned the mail clerk at Portland for a 4 o'clock mail service from here to Portland by way of Salem. Such service would be of great convenience to this section, especially so to the business of the city.

Mrs. F. R. Bowersox left for the northern part of Washington yesterday to visit her brother, whom she has not met since she was a child three years old. She will be gone some six weeks and will visit friends at various places in that state.

Evangelistic Meetings

Evangelist E. W. Shepard will resume his lectures at the Evangelical church again, next Sunday. When he was here last winter he took sick and left before he concluded his lecture course. There are five lectures left, and after they are finished, he will hold revival services, filling out a two weeks engagement. These lectures are both interesting and instructive, and Mr. Shepard should have a good hearing.

REGISTER NOW

P. H. Johnson has been appointed registrar for this locality and will be ready to register voters next week.

Don't put it off, as it is not long until the primary election, and you may want to help nominate some candidate.
