

I. O. O. F. Anniversary

On Monday evening the I. O. O. F. Lodge met in regular session after which the members celebrated the 95 anniversary of the order. The Rebekahs were invited to join in the festivities and altogether there were present about 75. A short but interesting program was rendered in which the Odd Fellows were assisted by the Rebekahs, the principal feature being a talk by Rev. K. H. Sickafosse, which was very ably given and much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Boothby, Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge, was called upon for a talk and in behalf of the Rebekah Lodge thanked the Odd Fellows for their kind invitation, and entertainment the evening had afforded. The program closed by invocation of divine blessing by the chaplain. After a short intermission, all repaired to the banquet hall where light refreshments were served. After this an hour was spent in social enjoyment.

The council will meet again May 12, in the evening.

Farm Buildings Burn With All Contents

DALLAS, Or., April 27.—The fine house and barn and all other out buildings on the farm of Ira Stubblefield, two miles south of this city, were totally destroyed by fire Saturday evening, while the family was in Dallas. The fire started in the barn, and the buildings with all their contents were consumed, including nearly 100 chickens. The cattle and horses were all in the pasture, and thus escaped. The value of the property destroyed is not less than $7000. The insurance was small.

The Wrong Bank Credited

The Observer unintentionally credited the wrong bank in the part taken in regard to the capture of the check swindler article in Tuesday's Observer. It should have read Mr. Craven of the Dallas City Bank instead of Eugene Hayter of the Dallas National. It was through the efforts of Mr. Craven that the Sheriff was notified and also the Salem banks. The Dallas City Bank wired to the eastern bank and discovered that a forgery had been committed. In the rush of work as Editor, reporter and general work, the writer had his hands full and heard the story and put it together the best he could on short notice.—Observer.

Fine Homesteads

There are some fine homesteads now open for settlement in Eastern Oregon. Good rich soil, some timber, and does not require irrigation. Write York B. Conway, Portland, Oregon. Three years a U. S. surveyor and timberman. Send $1.50 for large map and full instructions and information by which you can locate yourself on an exceptionally good free homestead near small town and railroad.

Yes, these are hard times. We throw away ashes and buy soap. We raise dogs and buy hogs. We grow weeds and buy vegetables. We catch fish with a $4 rod. We build schoolhouses and then send our children away from home to be educated. And, last, but not least, we send our boys out with a $40 gun and twenty dollar dog to hunt ten cent game. If these are hard times whose fault is it?—Exchange.

We are prone to let prejudice distort our vision. For instance, if Huerta were known to be the leader of an up-lift movement he would seem more amiable to us in his pictures, and everybody would be saying that he is not such a terrible looking old cuss after all.—Toledo Blade.
