

RECESSIONAL

God of our fathers, known of old,
 Lord of our far-flung battle line—
 Beneath whose awful hand we hold
 Dominion over palm and pine
 Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
 Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
 The captains and the kings depart;
 Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
 An humble and a contrite heart,
 Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
 Lest we forget—lest we forget!

Far called, our navies melt away—
 On dune and headland sinks the fire—
 Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
 Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
 Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
 Lest we forget—lest we forget!

If drunk with sight of power we loose
 Wild tongues that have not thee in awe—
 Such boasting as the gentiles use
 Or lesser breeds within the law—
 Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
 Lest we forget—lest we forget!

For heathen heart that puts her trust
 In reeking tube and iron shard,
 All valiant dust that builds on dust,
 And, guarding, calls not thee to guard—
 For frantic boast and foolish word,
 Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord,
 —RUDYARD KIPLING.

With the Churches

Christian Church.

By H. F. JONES.

If you want to know about it, ask the men. They rolled up a splendid attendance, and gave us a most helpful program in the Bible School last Sunday.

"A little child shall lead them." Next Sunday the Primary Department will have their day. Be on time at 10 o'clock sharp.

There are twice as many men in the Men's Class as there used to be. Are you one of them?

There can be no excuse for the man or woman who lives within the sound of church bells, and deliberately shuns the richest experience of fellowship and service.

The clock runs on Sunday the same as other days. Eleven o'clock is the hour for morning worship. Make it a family gathering.

A rather difficult situation is being handled by Mr. Mack as Assistant Bible School Superintendent. He is making good.

You lost something if you missed the C. E. meeting last Sunday evening. Next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock the subject will be "Faith." Coming?

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." Wednesday eve at 8 o'clock is the midweek service. Come and enjoy its fellowship.

A business meeting of the church will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30. All members are asked to attend.

The family altar and private devotions are beautiful. You have a public service as well. Are you lined up with any church for a public demonstration of the power of the gospel?

There is but one desire of both church and minister: to serve this community in the things of the gospel. We invite your interest and co-operation in all the services.

Airlie Notes

Laura Beebe of Dallas came to spend a few days with her cousin Emma Beebe.

Rev. Plowman from the East is the new minister at Lewisville.

We are ready to believe now that it will rain seven Sundays after Easter. Ask Prof. Haley, he can tell you.

Miss Read the music teacher from Monmouth will give a music recital at this place Friday night May 1, 1914.

A few of the young people from Airlie attended the school program given at Montgomery Friday evening.

Miss Laura Beebe visited the high school Monday.

The Airlie high school baseball team defeated the Falls City team by a score of 8 to 4. Wienert pitched good ball and was in danger but once, that being in the sixth inning.

The Airlie public school baseball team defeated the Independence team by a score of 8 to 0.

Miss Ewing was called to Portland on business Friday.

J. G. Leveck has his new car home now.

Monmouth Heights

Geo. Heck moved Ed Vanorder and family to John Groves' hop ranch near Independence Saturday.

Harry Clinton who is working at Airlie visited with his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Olin and family, Monday.

Mr. F. K. Hull recently sold eighty acres off his place here to Mr. Miller from Missouri.

Misses Bessie Clarke and Bessie Sullivan of Monmouth visited with Mrs. Retta Hamar Saturday.

Chas. Osborne and family attended the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Lena Osborne, who died in Independence Friday.

Chas. Chaney and family of Independence Sundayed with his brother Robert and family.

Roy Johnson is cutting wood for John Groves in Marion county.

William Fishback of Carlton visited at the Fishback home here Saturday and Sunday.

A. J. Shipley and wife made a business trip to Independence Saturday.

D. M. Calbreath and wife were shopping in Monmouth Saturday.

Mrs. Belle Johnson and daughter Fern are training hops for Walker Bro.'s near Independence.

Jay Clark of the Luckiamute sheared Geo. Heck's sheep one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Allen were to Walker Bro.'s hop yard Wednesday.

Pearl Fishback and sister Ina visited with their sister Mrs. Jesse Johnson and family, of the Luckiamute, Monday.

Large Oil Cans for Nests

Five-gallon oil cans are used for making hens' nests at the Oregon Poultry Station. They are cheap, easily made, sanitary and satisfactory to the hen. One end is cut out leaving three inches at the bottom to hold the nest material in the nest. The top side may be taken off to make the nest more roomy. The cans are then arranged on a platform two feet high, open ends toward the wall and eight inches from it, leaving a narrow alley way along which the hens can walk to the nest. If the tops are removed a sloping board is fastened above the nests to give seclusion and prevent other hens from standing on the nests. One nest is provided for every five or six hens. These nests are easily cleaned and sprayed, and offer little chance for mites and insects to find hiding places in. Professor Dryden approves this use of cans, although he seldom overlooks an opportunity to jolt the practice of throwing them into poultry yards.
