

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Brick, while they last, $10 a thousand at Monmouth Lumber Yard.

Mesdames A. and C. R. Bookey of Suver were trading in town Wednesday.

W. R. Coulter of Dallas was looking after business in Monmouth Wednesday.

Mrs. E. A. Peterson of Seattle is here visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Tyler and family.

Miss Lela Erickson was home from McMinnville to spend the week-end with her mother.

Coming! Coming! Coming! "Trial By Jury." To be given by home talent. The O. N. S. Glee Club.

George Carmichael got a free bath, Wednesday morning, so says our reporter, and took a walk home for a change of apparel.

C. C. Mulkey and son W. J., E. L. Keezel, Charles Strong and Floyd Wimberley attended the Oregon field meet at Corvallis last Friday.

Joseph Craven was home from Portland over Sunday. He is on the Federal jury which will probably close its work sometime next month.

George Carmichael and family autoed to Portland Sunday and returned home Monday. Mrs. P. H. Burt accompanied them home for a few days visit.

S. B. Taylor, of Dallas, a candidate for surveyor on the Democratic ticket, was in Monmouth Monday, shaking hands and getting acquainted with the voters.

Mrs. Donald Bolter of Salem came over Tuesday to visit relatives and friends. She will be joined by her husband Saturday and they will return home Sunday.

F. E. Murdock autoed to McMinnville Sunday where he met his sister, Mary, whom he brought back with him to keep books at the Monmouth Creamery in his stead while he does outside work.

Tom Ostien, formerly of this city but now of Monmouth, arrived here Wednesday and expects to remain for some time. He is accompanied by a friend, Homer Brixey. Tom has been attending school at Corvallis this year.—Bandon Recorder.

Grant B. Dimick, Republican candidate for governor, was in Monmouth Wednesday shaking hands and making new acquaintances. Mr. Dimick has been before the voters of Oregon and is well known over the state and should carry a heavy vote.

The movement to celebrate July Fourth is gaining impetus and now that the ladies constituting the Civic Club are getting behind the proposition it bids fair to mature. There is no good reason why Monmouth should not celebrate. Move out and make good.

C. G. Griffa made a trip to Jefferson Tuesday returning home the next day, and thereby hangs a tale. He left his better half at home, or in other words, perhaps, she did not want to accompany him. He had just purchased a new horse, we don't know his age, and as the story runs, a buggy had been thrown in to sell the horse and a set of harness given to get the buggy off the place, with a whip as a persuader to move the bargain. Mr. G. started to move the lot to a farm at Jefferson.—Mrs. Griffa wished to be excused not being a good walker.

McCLELLAN-JUDD

On Sunday, May 3, 1914, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sacre, Miss Blanche Judd, of Portland, was wedded to George McClellan of this city in the presence of a few immediate friends and the inmates of the Sacre home, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Buchanan of Independence.

After the ceremony was over the bride and groom and guests enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and a social hour together intermingled with some excellent music.
