

ALWAYS UNPROFITABLE

You may worry when you're weary,
You may worry when you're well;
You may worry when life's dreary,
Or when buds begin to swell;
You may worry in December
And keep worrying in May,
But in any case remember
That you cannot make it pay.
You may worry when disaster
Hovers o'er you in the night;
You may worry when your master
Has declined to treat you right;
You may worry when they've taken
The last chance you had away,
But the fact remains unshaken
That you cannot make it pay.

With the Churches

Baptist Church.

By A Member

The minister of the Baptist church has been granted a leave of absence for six weeks and during that period there will be no preaching services there unless other arrangements are made.

Evangelical Church

By F. M. FISHER.

Next Sunday is "Membership Day," and a rally of all the members of the church is desired.

Did you ever see a "MODEL CHURCH?" Be with us in the service Sunday morning, and we will try to picture one for you.

The missionary meeting of the Young People's Alliance last Sunday evening, led by Mrs. Reed, was an inspiring service, and fully enjoyed by those who were present.

The field at home is large and white for the harvest. The teeming millions of our cities East and West bring the harvest field right to our doors, and the extensive migration of Americans and Europeans to the West and Northwest of the U. S. and to the virgin soil of the Canadian Northwest is a loud call for missionaries to follow them up and look after their spiritual welfare. What is a nickel, a dime, a quarter a week for missions? But many never get beyond a few coppers for this great cause.

Christian Church.

By H. F. JONES.

All of the services of last Lord'sday were largely attended. We are preparing for the services of next Lord'sday. Counting on your presence and co-operation.

The first Bible School in America was organized in Hanover County, Va., in 1786.

The Bible School will meet as usual at 10 o'clock Lord'sday morning. All the members in town are urged to attend. Strangers will receive a cordial welcome.

The Bible contains 66 books, 1,189 chapters, 31,173 verses, and 773,746 words.

A service of special interest to every Christian is the communion service at 11 o'clock next Lord'sday morning. It will be followed by a sermon by the minister. Do not miss this service.

Voltaire prophesied that in one hundred years the Bible would be unknown. He died in 1777. More than 12,000,000 copies of the Bible are circulated in China alone, annually.

Christian Endeavor topic for next Lord'sday is "The Courage Verse," Josh. 1: 9. Young people are cordially invited to this service.

"Give us the Spirit of God and we shall be one. You cannot produce a unity by all the vigor of your ecclesiastical discipline."

—F. W. Robertson.

The evening service at 8 o'clock. Some popular evangelistic theme will be discussed. Help us make this service a good one.
