Fine Piano Recital

An enthusiastic audience greeted Miss Hazel Watts, a student of Boston Conservatory of Music, in a piano recital at the Christian Church the evening of the twenty-third.

A brief introduction to each number brought audience and interpreter into closer touch with each other and with the thought of the composer, and made the finely rendered program all the more enjoyable. The wide range presented in the program, from Bach and Beethoven to the Rhapsody by Brahms and the descriptive music of McDowell and Debussy, revealed a breadth of musical culture unusual in so young a pianist; and the whole performance was marked by a natural, charming individuality, combined with that careful attention to details which is characteristic of a true artist.

A New County To Be Cut Off Western Lane

EUGENE, Or., July 28.—Petitions asking for the creation of a new county out of the Western end of Lane, are being circulated for three weeks and it is said are receiving many signatures. The petitions will be filed in accordance with the 1913 law, which makes the creation of a new county a matter of local issue, to be voted upon in the territory affected alone.
