

EUGENICS

By C. W. Hayes, Ohio.

Victims ripe for segregation
Will no doubt deplete the nation,
But Eugenics is a thing we can't despise.
Let us then review the list,
Whom we fear must squirm and twist;
Should Eugenics once decide to Eugenize.
There's the man who has consumption
And the man who has no gumption;
For a starter that is surely going some.
Every man caught on a spree
Will be Eugenized, you see;
Thus eliminate the future curse of rum.
There's the man who is bald-headed
Surely then will not be wedded;
Or the cause would go to smash beyond repair.
For the future generation
Of this proud and glorious nation
Might perambulate this earth devoid of hair.
There's the loon who rocks the boat
And the guy who pawns his coat;
And the boob who didn't know the gun was loaded.
There's the freak who has twelve toes
And a double-jointed nose,
And the crook who back to prison was railroaded.
There's the grocer who sells eggs
Which he knows have sprouted legs,
And the druggist who has "something just as good."
And all other crooked venders,
Butchers, bakers, money-lenders,
And the Yankee who makes nutmegs
out of wood.
There's the gang they call the rooters,
Megaphone and tin-horn tooters;
Will be Eugenized at once, both one
and all.
Then, perhaps, some future day
We may watch the home-team play,
And enjoy a sane and peaceful game
of ball.

Reserves are being called to the colors by all European countries. Now is the time for the religious reserves of Monmouth to stand by the colors. If all the church members at home will stand by there will be no summer slump.
