FAKING KANSAS STATISTICS

The agents for the foreign liquor corporations who are conducting the wet campaign in Oregon and Washington have been putting out a lot of fake statistics about Kansas, pretending to compare its bank deposits and penitentiary statistics with similar statistics of other states.

In comparing the bank statistics, the liquor men only credit Kansas with the deposits in the national banks, as given in the report of the Comptroller of the currency.

They wholly ignore the deposits in the 933 state banks whose deposits at the time of the last statement amounted to $108,000,000.

In their Kansas penitentiary statistics, the liquor men include the prisoners in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, which are not Kansas prisoners at all, but who come from all over the country. Under date of August 8th, Warden Morgan of the Federal penitentiary wires the Anti-Saloon League Press Bureau that there were 1031 Federal prisoners confined on that date.

Responding to a telegraphic request for information as to the number of prisoners in the Kansas State Penitentiary, in reply, Warden Botkin telegraphed as follows:

LANSING, KANSAS, August 8th, 1914.

Anti Saloon League Press Bureau, Portland, Oregon.

Seven hundred and thirty-three men. Twelve Kansas women. Thirty-eight Federal women. About eight percent of men here through liquor and dope. Very large percentage of these not Kansas citizens but floaters from other states. Prohibition has greatly diminished crime among Kansas citizens. Contrary reports false.

J. D. BOTKIN, Warden.

VANCOUVER'S NINETIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Columbia River Interstate Fair will be held at Vancouver, Washington, this year, September 7th to 12th. Of its entertaining features Geo. P. Larsen, secretary and manager, writes as follows:

I will not attempt to tell you about our magnificent agricultural and stock exhibit because I appreciate that you are pretty strong along this line yourself, but we are celebrating the 90th anniversary of the establishing of the City of Vancouver, and in connection have secured the well known Wild West entertainment for the week; namely, Irwin Brothers big outfit from Cheyenne, Wyoming. This was the original Wild West show in the United States and still leads all others. Walla Walla and Pendleton have been scrapping each other for some time but have come together to visit Vancouver with the intention of wiping the Cheyenne outfit off the map and it is going to be some fight, let me tell you.

BIDS INVITED
