Miss Agnes Graham of Twin-falls, Idaho, is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham and family.

Mr. Wood purposes to buy or rent a farm, stock it with good cows and build up a milk-supply business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Halleck spent the week-end visiting friends at Corvallis and Philomath, returning home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sellick of St. Johns were the guests of J. Graham and son, W. R. for a couple of days, leaving for home Tuesday.

Remember the home laundry. Its proprietors solicit your patronage and will do their best to please you. Try them and if they treat you well stay with them. It pays to build up and sustain home institutions.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven returned home last Friday from their trip to Bandon and other Oregon points, well pleased with their outing. Alva had the satisfaction of killing a two-point buck while in Curry County.

While on his trip to Southern Oregon, George Carmichael rented a 568 acre stock farm, some six miles from Oakland. The ranch will be stocked with goats and sheep. Mr. Carmichael will take charge of the place on October first.

The grain threshing in this section of Oregon is through, or about so. C. Lorence was in town Wednesday, and reported that he was through threshing grain and was working upon his clover, but said that the clover was turning out very poorly.

D. A. Chrichlow of Portland was in town Tuesday shaking hands with old acquaintances. He has been visiting friends in the Luckiamute country for the last three weeks, while recuperating his health which has become somewhat impaired.

Mrs. E. C. Thurston and children of Portland is visiting old associates in and around Monmouth. Mr. Thurston and family moved to Portland from this locality about eleven years ago and he is now mail carrier in St. Johns. He visited his old home in the East this summer, returning home a short time ago.

Mrs. O. A. Wolverton entertained her daughter, Mrs. Ada Taylor, and little daughter, Irene, of Portland, also a friend of Mrs. Taylor, Mr. James Windham, for the week-end, and on Sunday her daughter, Mrs. Wilma Orr, and family, of Rickreall, and son, Crosby Dalton, and wife, of Independence, were present making a very pleasant home gathering.

A reception was given Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Nettie Boche, at her home, in honor of Mrs. L. A. Robinson, who joined her husband, Prof. Robinson, that day, he having been here for two weeks attending to business. Most of the Womans Social Hour Club were present, Mrs. Robinson having been a former member. Light refreshments were served and a very pleasant time enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Hazel, left Tuesday for Brooklyn, N. Y. where Mr. Robinson will teach school this winter. They expected to visit in Ohio and Virginia on their way.

Body of Man, 72, Found

INDEPENDENCE, Oregon, August 26.—"This deed is done by my own hands. I am broke and old. I am 72 years old. I was born in 1842. No one cares to give me work, as I am too old. My name will stand unknown. I am glad it is over."

Thus reads a note found written in a book lying beside the dead body of an old man discovered beside a bridge inside the city limits here. D. F. Weatherford is the name on a grip found with the body. A small bottle of carbolic acid and a half-pint bottle containing whiskey also were found. The clothing bears the name Frank A. Cram, Hood River, Oregon. In the grip was found a new automatic revolver, fully loaded.

FOR SALE OR RENT

Four acres of pasture land for rent, also for sale; will sell entire place or trade for Portland property. See or write
