

WEEKLY INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

New Payrolls, Improvements and Factories and Enterprises that Will Give Labor Employment, and Matters Affecting Industries and Investments.

SALEM, OREGON, Sept. 28.—The La Grande $60,000 Elks lodge will be erected by the Palmer-Ellisen Company of Portland. It will have Otis elevators and finished in Seattle terra cotta.

Portland Catholics are planning a home for Archbishop Christie and other buildings for 1915, total improvements to cost $250,000.

Quarterly payment of taxes is a popular movement that would relieve industries in a practical way.

The new Pendleton hotel costing $130,000 has been opened to the public.

The $75,000 rock crushing of the Cascade Construction Company at Marion has begun operation with a payroll of 100 men at $6,000 per month. It is expected to distribute 600,000 yards of crushed rock on the Southern Pacific Company tracks in Oregon.

Cyanide jumping from 19 to 75 cents a pound on account of the war is hampering the mining industry in Baker County.

The new Portland postoffice will have two floors devoted to mail work, and seven floors of offices for the army of federal officials and commissioners at Portland.

Proposed plans for the improvement of the old St. Johns road out of Portland calls for an expenditure of $170,000.

Albany is calling for bids for a new $50,000 high school.

Portland bankers recently returned from the bankers conference at Washington, D. C., state eastern factories are running night and day to fill orders brought about by the European War.

European War has demoralized the fruit industry and freak labor laws are crippling the canneries at home.

The Heppner Milling Company distributes annually $10,000 in wages.

Pilot Rock has great need of more dwellings.

McCully & Rumble of Joseph have just completed a concrete office building.

The state railroad commission has protested against a three per cent tax on freight shipments as a means of raising governmental revenue to offset the effects of the European war.

Gresham will soon have a new cannery.

Bids being received for the reconstruction of the headworks at the intake on the East Fork of Hood River and construction of Main canal for an approximate distance of six miles.

Work on the Sutherlin, Coos Bay & Eastern Railroad is being pushed rapidly.

Joe Knowles got what he went after—publicity, the greatest Oregon product.

Prineville needs more modern houses.

The Willamette Pacific expects to have rails to Tidewater before the rainy season sets in.

The Sutherlin Railroad has been granted a franchise on Sutherlin streets.

The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company will immediately proceed to enlarge its Hillsboro plant to meet the demands of the constantly increasing offerings

Greeting:

In order to clearly demonstrate the fact that the Theory of State-Wide Prohibition is Morally and Legally Impossible, the issue, after tremendous effort, has been rendered nearly Human in the character of S. W. Prohibition who is made a defendant before the voters of Oregon.

It is the sincere hope of the Prosecutor of S. W. Prohibition that those who have believed in him in Eastern States and know his record, will refrain from demonstrations during the course of the trial and that no violence be resorted to by those who have put their faith in him in Oregon and who may become indignant when the evidence against him is introduced.

The Prosecution desires to make an open statement to the effect that all sympathy and respect is entertained for those who have been supporters of S.W. Prohibition prior to his arrest and for those who have been at his side in the preliminary arraignment. The Prosecution holds this sympathy and respect as it is freely admitted that S. W. Prohibition is a very clever man.

The trial of S. W. Prohibition is a prosecution against the theory of the proposed state-wide amendment and is not an attack against the supporters of the theory whose motives are no doubt above reproach.

OPENING STATEMENT

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury:

The Defendant, S. W. Prohibition has been placed on trial on the complaint of 1400 Oregon Hop Farmers who arraign him on the following charges:

Intemperance.

Obtaining Recognition Under False Pretenses.

Bringing into the State of Oregon Paid Agitators for the purpose of inoculating her citizens with the Germs of Hysteria.

Offering for acceptance in Oregon broken theories rejected by 15 Eastern States where defendant was ordered "out" after years of bitter experience.

Attempting to Rob Independent Communities of Oregon of their Rights of Self Government.

Attempting to Kill the Hop Industry of Oregon.

You have heard the charges and now I will take them up one by one and introduce evidence showing conclusively that the allegations made in this complaint are true.

(At this point S. W. Prohibition through his attorney submitted a motion praying for a change of venue to a court in the State of Kansas.

JUDGE WISDOM—Inasmuch as this is a question to be decided by the people of Oregon motion is denied.

(S. W. Prohibition through his attorney then beseeched the Court that adjournment be taken until after November the Third.)

Motion Denied.

Court adjourned for the day.

N. B.—This trial will proceed from day to day.

EXTRACTS

S. W. Prohibition last night said "The Longer I stay in Oregon the more homesick I become for Kansas."

S. W. Prohibition in an interview stated that he had met a number of Kansans in Oregon but he later admitted that he had never met an Oregonian in his favorite state.

Judge Wisdom notified S. W. Prohibition that he would hold him strictly to facts and would permit no assumptions on the ground of "beliefs" "prophecies" or "promises."

A close friend of S. W. Prohibition said enthusiastically, "Yes, Kansas is certainly a grand state to come FROM."

One of the Jurors caused Judge Wisdom to smile when he stated that the Fifteen Eastern States were wise when they tried S. W. Prohibition and convicted him but that Oregon was WISER as she was trying him BEFORE welcoming him and not AFTERWARDS.

A twitter of laughter rippled around the Court room when S. W. Prohibition informed the Court that he would much rather have his case tried in Kansas.

A young lady who gave her name as Miss Peruna inquired at the Court House after the trial as to where she could find the defendant.

In the Supreme Court of Public Opinion

FREE STATE OF OREGON vs. S. (STATE) W. (WIDE) PROHIBITION of Milk. The new building will be of concrete 140x140 and when completed will give the local plant a capacity of 200,000 pounds a day.

During harvest season to save crops farmers must work 12 to 14 hours. What will an 8-hour law do to the farming industry?

A new Catholic church is being built at Adams.

The Standard Oil Company is preparing to erect supply tanks at Lebanon, making this point the distributing center for that part of the county.

The Lebanon Lumber Company will soon begin to ship logs to their mill at that town and the mill will be run to capacity.

Wm. Kyle & Son's Company salmon cannery at Florence has started operation and will distribute $20,000 to the workers during the season.

Portland will soon erect another 24 classroom school at a cost of $160,000.

The Marion county court house is to have a new heating plant installed by T. M. Barr of Salem.

OUR OFFER

In another column will be found an advertisement "Free, Memoirs of Napoleon," which we are offering to Subscribers to the HERALD together with Collier's Weekly. Anyone desiring to investigate the offer can see the three volumes of "Memoirs of Napoleon" at the HERALD office.

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstractors, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAM

Four Months For $1.25

You need a daily paper now to keep posted on the news, and the Evening Telegram will supply that want. It gives all the news from Europe while it is news.

The regular price for four months is $1.80 but now you can get it to January 1st, 1915, for $1.25 at the HERALD office, by either calling or sending the money and your address.

FOR SALE

The Bedwell place in Monmouth. For information write V. OBERSTOCK, 681 Hoyt Street, Portland, Ore.

HAIR SWITCHES made from combings. Enquire at this office.

Himes Engineering Co.

Surveying and Platting

Estimates furnished on Drainage and Irrigation Work.

PHONE 502.

DALLAS, ORE.

B. F. SWOPE,

Attorney at Law and Notary Public.

Home Phone:

Office, No. 1320,

Residence, No. 3712.

Office in Cooper building,

Independence, - Oregon

WALTER G. BROWN

Notary Public

Blank Deeds, Mortgages, Etc.

The Herald solicits your aid