

PEACE

If sin be in the heart, The fairest sky is foul, and sad the summer weather,
The eye no longer sees the lambs at play together, The dull ear cannot hear the birds that sing so sweetly,
And all the joy of God's good earth is gone completely.

If sin be in the heart.

If peace be in the heart,
The wildest winter storm is full of solemn beauty,
The midnight lightning flash but shows the path of duty, Each living creature tells some new and joyous story,

The very trees and stones all catch a ray of glory,

If peace be in the heart.

"Be not deceived. God is not mocked; whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

"If you sow saloons, don't lament if your sons become drunkards and your daughters are debauched."

X

"Snow, next Lordsday morning at 10 o'clock, would not stop the Bible school session. You are cordially invited to attend."

"In a recent address at Toledo, Ex-President Roosevelt said: "Conditions in Ohio this year are such that if I were a resident of Ohio, I would vote against the wet amendment and for the dry amendment."

X

"Every member of the church should be present at the Communion service at 11 o'clock Lordsday morning. This will be followed as usual by a sermon."

"Don't forget in the hurry of life that you owe God something you can't pay with money. Losing sight of this, you'll forget to pay even the money."

X

"The cry: 'Prohibition doesn't prohibit,' is a false alarm. No other law prohibits. Laws regarding sale of liquor and tobacco to minors; laws regulating the sale of booze in dry territory; laws regarding weights and measures, banks, railroads, dope, speed, gambling, chastity and almost everything else recognized by law, are broken daily.
What about it? Prohibition legislation is just as effective as any other legislation. Let's try it a round anyway."

X

"Christian Endeavor service at 6:30 Lordsday evening. All young people invited."

X

"The midweek service is growing in interest. We are taking up an outline study of the Pauline Epistles. Come out Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. and enjoy this service with us."

X

"Personal liberty" is a broken staff. Your liberty is circumscribed by the rights of others. Men used to smoke in street cars, then they had to stay on the platform. Now, in almost all cities they are not allowed to smoke on cars at all. Why? Because non-smokers have rights."

X

"Come to the evangelistic service Lordsday evening at 7:30.
A great song service. Special music by the choir."

X

"The church and minister are here for the benefit of the community. Let us help you in solving life's problems. If you need counsel on spiritual problems we will be glad to help.

Evangelical Church

By F. M. FISHER.

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things above where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God."

A stormy Sunday shows up the faithfulness of a congregation. We were glad for the number who were out last Sunday.
But most of all for the presence of the Christ in our midst.

Judas found no sympathy from the men who encouraged him to sin. When he came to them and confessed his wrong, they said it did not concern them.
Evil-doers are heartless.

The meeting of the Young People's Alliance Sunday night was most interesting. The special study of China adds to the interest. You are invited to meet with us next Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Where the saloons flourish the homes wither.

A gin-mill cannot run without boys. Have you one to spare?

Any law looks blue to the man who wants to break it.

The liquor traffic is the highest tax being paid by the people today."—Gov. Vessey of South Dakota.

Wouldn't it make you grin to see how worried the liquor men are over the failure of prohibition?

Because you cannot prohibit murder, why not license it?

If more liquor is sold under prohibition, why do the brewers oppose it?

If the money spent for liquor could be applied to public expense, we would be free from all taxes whatever.

In a dry town, only a sneak can sell liquor.

Prohibition does not make law breakers, it simply reveals them.

The man who drinks never "takes the consequences;" they are borne by his family, his employer, and his grocer.

"THE SIN OF THE WORLD," is the topic for the sermon Sunday night. Come and get the message. It is for all.

Young man, we want you in our class in the Sunday school Sunday morning. We will make you welcome, and appreciate your help.

TO THE VOTERS OF POLK CO., OREGON

We, the undersigned, take pleasure in recommending S. B.
Taylor, of Dallas, Oregon, for the office of County Surveyor. Mr.
Taylor has been engaged in civil engineering and surveying in this county for the past eight years.
We know him to be thoroughly competent, a man of good character, and an efficient worker.

Your support of his candidacy at the November election will be appreciated, and the means of placing a good man in the important office of County Surveyor.

Dated this September 22, 1914.
