Back Injured In Accident

The Nelson boys of Independence had the misfortune to drive over the side of the road, on Main street near Catron street, where the large tiling is laid to let the drainage under the road. One side of the rig went into the ditch, the boys and contents of the rig being spilled out and the team getting away from the driver and running until it came to the railroad crossing east of town where one of the horses fell. The horse that fell skinned its knee considerably, otherwise there was but little damage resulted. There were five boys in the wagon. This is the second accident that has occurred at this place in a short time. Steps are being taken to avoid future mishaps there.

Later information is to the effect that the wagon ran over Walter Nelson and it is thought that his spine is injured. There is a large knot on his back that came as a result of the injury.
