

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

WANTED—House work for Saturdays. Address Maude Malkson at Dormitory. 2t

W. J. Miller returned home Sunday from his eastern visit having enjoyed a pleasant trip.

Cap Lorence is attending court at Dallas this week. Court convened on Tuesday, Judge Holmes failed to arrive in time to take up the session on Monday.

Miss Campbell of Corvallis arrived here Wednesday on her way home from a visit at Oregon City and spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. R. Avery.

Miss Burcham, who was called home, to Cottage Grove, a couple of weeks ago on account of the death of her mother returned to Normal again last Sunday.

Mrs. V. Dell Butler, and small son, of Cazadero, arrived here Thursday of last week for a two weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Newnan.

Mrs. Mary Stine and son, Harry, left last Friday for Portland and on Saturday left there by boat for Southern California where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Fisk returned home last Friday from their visit to Michigan where they spent the summer. They had a pleasant trip and were well pleased with their visit.

Mrs. Will Laughlin of Carlton visited friends here the latter part of last week having stopped off on her way home from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Buckingham of Belfountain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ireland visited Mrs. Ireland's daughter, Mrs. Columbus Tedrow of the Luckiamute country, this week, also friends in Monmouth, leaving Wednesday for their home at Corvallis.

Everybody is pleased with the removal of the mud from Main street. This rejoicing brings hopes of a day when the mud on our streets will be a thing of the past and the first whisperings of pavements in the future is faintly forming in the minds of residents. It will keep growing.

W. H. Mack and Peter Kurre and wife accompanied William Alderson to Portland Saturday to get medical advice for Mr. Alderson who is quite ill. Messrs. Mack and Kurre returned home with Mr. Alderson Monday and Mrs. Kurre stayed in Portland to visit with her daughter, Susie.

Mr. W. C. Campbell of Corvallis, brother of Mrs. R. Avery, and her cousin, Mr. George Campbell, of Boise, Idaho, were her guests Wednesday of last week the former remaining until Saturday while the latter left for Portland the following day. Mrs. Avery had not seen her cousin for 47 years.

The open season for ducks and chickens seems to be here again. That is, the time has come when the night prowler is want to open the henhouse and help himself to the best the roost affords. Report says that W. W. Newman lost a duck that he would like to see come back, and that several chickens, belonging to Mrs. Ella Thorp, are missing.

The City Dads are having Main street, through the business part of our little city, improved by scraping up and having the mud hauled off of the gravel. This will help the street as it will not get nearly so muddy again, but they are thinking of further improving this part of the street by applying some screened gravel to the surface.

Phone in your news items. We need them.

Ed Rogers was doing business in town yesterday.

Lloyd B. Waller of Corvallis was seen in town Tuesday.

Mrs. C. P. Hembree was a Monmouth visitor Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Lorence visited friends in Corvallis over Sunday.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters.

E. L. Seifert, the Kings Valley photographer, was a Monmouth visitor last Monday.

Dr. Irving Matthews, the eye-glass man, was a visitor to Monmouth Wednesday.

D. M. Hampton was a Dallas caller last Monday having had business that induced him that way.

M. M. Jones has been hauling gravel this week and filling up around his well to shield from mud.

James L. Williams has been confined to his bed this week. He has partially lost the use of the left side of his body.

Save your combings and let Blanche C. Stitt weave you a switch. Phone 3905 or call first door north of HERALD office.

Chester Caplinger of Portland, a cousin to Allen T. Clark, is here visiting. Mr. Caplinger will set up a law office at Independence in the near future.

Make life more pleasant for your help-meet. Give her a rest next Sunday and take her to Hotel Monmouth and enjoy an excellent Chicken Dinner. It will fill a vacancy and take away a world of trouble and make an oasis on life's journey.

M. M. Jones attended the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Hastings of Lewisville last Saturday, who had been sick for some time. On Tuesday following the funeral, Mr. Hastings' neighbors to the number of twenty-two gathered in with their teams and helped him with his plowing and seeding. The milk of human kindness still flows on.

Mrs. G. D. Quisenberry will leave Monmouth tomorrow for Eugene, where she will perform the duties of cashier for the Pacific Telephone Company. Her daughter, Frances, will remain here for a couple of weeks and then go to Eugene also. Miss Mabel Damon will take the place with the Independence Telephone Company vacated by Mrs. Quisenberry.

Monmouth has been steadily growing during the past few years and is still making progress. Some of our citizens in taking a retrospective view of the city for the past three years have counted fifty houses that have been built during that period. Besides this there has been other improvements where dwelling houses have been remodeled or have an addition built on to them.

Mrs. R. A. Hastings Laid to Rest

Mrs. R. A. Hastings, who was operated on at the Dallas hospital about two months ago, was laid to rest in the Smith cemetery, about seven miles south of Monmouth. Interment taking place Saturday afternoon.

While at the hospital her recovery seemed certain; but later complications set in and all that kind hearts and loving hands could do was of no avail, and she passed to the Spirit world early Friday morning.

Tena Waters was born in January, 1869, and was married to R. A. Hastings in November, 1900. Mrs. Hastings was a woman of many sterling qualities, a

You can get that
M. Born suit in time for Thanksgiving
if you order now.
Come in and see the large samples of cloth.

The V. F. Daniel Store

There's a Reason

Why we do the business.

People buy what appeals to their eye, so by keeping our stock of the best goods obtainable in a sanitary way, in a well appointed store the conclusion is easily proved.

We Cater to Particular People and Personally Profit by dealing in Pure Foods.

Fresh Vegetables always on display in Sanitary Windows.

Allen T. Clark

"What makes the biscuits so fine and nice?"
Said the smiling husband to his wife.

"Why, don't you know I always send
"To Allen Clark's for Highland Blend?"

THE	Herald and Pacific Monthly one year,.....	$2.25
	Herald and Pacific Homestead one year....	2.25
	Herald and Weekly Oregonian one year....	2.50
	Herald and Daily Telegram one year,.....	5.50
	Herald and The Weekly Blade one year....	1.85

kind neighbor and a devoted wife and mother.

She had anchored her hopes in "That home not made by hands, but eternal in the heavens."

She leaves an aged father and mother, a husband and two children, five sisters and two brothers to mourn their loss, besides a host of friends to keep her memory sacred.

Mrs. Hastings had a number of friends in Monmouth.

V. O. BOOTS

Fire, Life and Casualty

INSURANCE

Losses Promptly Paid

Surveying and Subdividing

Prompt service, work guaranteed.—Himes Engineering Company, Dallas, Ore., Phone 502

OVER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

WALTER G. BROWN

Notary Public

Blank Deeds, Mortgages, Etc.