

A Man With a Temper

Wants Hardware with a Better Temper

If we sell it to you, you are not bothered with soft metal or any of the many other annoyances common to poorly tempered and "cheap" hardware.

Suppose you just keep this fact in mind until you are ready to buy.

The Rebekahs met last night and installed officers for the ensuing six months. At the close of lodge refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Public Library Notes

Miss E. Miller, librarian.
Miss Agnes Campbell, assistant.

The library is open every Tuesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9.

More books have been donated in the past week. We wish to thank the people for their interest and help.

Thirty-two books were drawn from the library Tuesday evening.

Come and spend your evening in the reading room. On the reading table you will find magazines and papers that will be both helpful and interesting to you.

Once upon a time a library book was overheard talking to a little boy who had just borrowed it, and this is what it said:

"Please don't handle me with dirty hands. I should feel ashamed to be seen when the next little boy borrowed me.

"Or leave me out in the rain. Books can catch cold as well as children.

"Or make marks on me with your pen or pencil. It would spoil my looks.

"Or lean on me with your elbows when you are reading me. It hurts.

"Or open me and lay me face down on the table. You wouldn't like to be treated so.

"Or put between my leaves a pencil or anything thicker than a single sheet of paper. It would strain my back.

"Whenever you are through reading me, if you are afraid of losing your place, don't turn down the corner of one of my leaves, but have a neat little book mark to put in where you stop, and then close me and lay me down on my side so that I may have a good rest.

"Remember that I want to visit a great many other boys and girls after you are through with me.

"Besides, I may meet you again some day, and you would be sorry to see me looking old and torn and soiled. Help to keep me fresh and clean, and I will help to make you happy."

NOTICE

The annual School Officers' Convention will be held in Dallas, Saturday, January 9th. As this is legislative year, there are some things to come up that pertain to the next session of the legislature. It is hoped that we will have a greater number in attendance that we ever had before. Last year nearly every district in the county was represented and this year we should have more. Dr. Winship of Boston, an educator of National reputation, who is spending the week of January 4-8 in Portland, will be with us in the afternoon and will give us an address. This will probably be the only School Officers' Association in the state to be addressed by Dr. Winship. Superintendent Churchill will also be with us.

T. W. Brunk, Chairman.
H. C. Seymour, Secretary.
