Auto Goes Over Embankment

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Martin, who are enroute to the exposition at San Francisco by automobile, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller of Corvallis, write to friends in this city that the car and its occupants went over a fifty-foot embankment near Weeds, California, on Friday last. Fortunately none of the occupants of the automobile were injured, but the car was badly damaged, causing a considerable delay to make the necessary repairs. Mr. Martin reports the roads in wretched condition, and says that forty-two miles were covered on low gear because of the mud. - Dallas Observer.
