

WEEKLY INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

New Payrolls, Improvements and Factories and Enterprises that Will Give Labor Employment, and Matters Affecting Industries and Investments.

SALEM, OREGON, June 28.—P. Company retaining its land grant means taxes for counties and money for extensions.

Coquille—W. J. Longston would enlarge brick plant to 100,000 daily output.

The decision of the federal court for the district of Oregon forfeiting the lands to the government was popular with the masses, though from a strictly financial point of view the retention of the lands by the railroad company is undoubtedly best.—Grants Pass Courier.

Portland theatres serve notice of discharging all union musicians.

When 100 farmers co-operate to sell products it's a public market. When ten sawmills co-operate it's a trust.

Klamath county has a new paper, the Merrill Times, by Geo. E. Bradnack.

Baker White Pine Lumber Company adds dry kiln.

Tillamook—Bridge planned over Hoquarton slough to cost $5,000.

Corvallis—S. P. Company asking franchise to operate electric trains over loop.

Coquille property owners sue city for putting down rotten paving.

United States Supreme Court annuls forfeiture proceedings in O. & C. land grant—holding title to 2,300,000 acres rests with railroad until congress acts.

Arlington enters upon economy program.

Change and "reform" or industrial stability—which?—Arlington Times.

Multnomah grange committee were "shown" some good concrete highways. They did not inspect the defective ones to be seen at Salem.

Public utilities commissions of Idaho and Oregon have granted no reduction in power rates in the Snake River country—power companies losing money now.

Now that the new Hill steamship line is in operation between the mouth of the Columbia and San Francisco, and after the Hill people have spent upwards of $5,000,000 on this new industry, the United States Interstate Commerce Commission takes an expensive trip to Portland to see if it cannot in some way prove that the Hill system put these boats on contrary to law.

Tax reduction this year $2,131,000 and limit of six per cent per year as largest possible increase means better business conditions.

Baker will use two million gallons of water per day this summer.

O. W. R. & N. Company has put on daily train service to Jun-tura.

Astoria—Street car service was established Monday to Taylor's addition.

Yamhill will spend $5,000 on street improvement.

Coquille—County takes bids July 8 for bridge across Coquille River.

It is a great thing to cause people to think—but to set them thinking on wrong lines is also a responsibility.

County Road Master Yeon selects bitulithic for bulk of $1,-

250,000 road construction in Multnomah county, expect canyon road to be laid in concrete with brick on all grades of 5 to 7-1-2 per cent.

Benton county co-operative association paid 5 per cent dividends since January 1.

Too much legislation has almost put the dairy industry of Oregon out of business.

Marshfield—McDonald and Vaughn logging camps open with 80 men.

Political combine between state grange and labor organizations breaking, farmers refusing to back radical programs.

Coal shipments will soon be coming out of Lincoln county.

Sutherlin Everfresh plant is drying loganberries.

Hubbard progressive forces are unanimous for industrial development.

Siletz—County is locating two bridges and a 1,080 foot trestle.

Salem—Jitneys to be regulated and put under $5,000 bond.

A pool of fruit growers is horticultural co-operation. A grain, wool or mohair pool is the height of agricultural wisdom.

More injury has been done to Pacific Coast towns through hot-air methods of advertising than by any other one cause.—Sutherlin Sun.

Canyon City—Prairie City Light & Power Company to extend line to supply power to gold dredgers on canyon creek.

Roseburg merchants have decided to abolish all trading stamps and other premium devices for buying trade and will rely on legitimate newspaper advertising.
