

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Number one 16-foot fencing at the Monmouth Lumber Yard, $10 per M.

Miss Christine Halvorsen went to Silverton last Friday for a week's visit.

HOUSE FOR RENT—Either furnished or unfurnished. Apply to J. A. Sturkin, Monmouth.

A. C. Bornestead and wife of Salem spent last Sunday the guests of J. A. Sturkin and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Heffley and family and Mr. N. W. Heffley visited relatives in McMinnville Sunday.

Those desiring light house-keeping rooms for the coming school year will do well to look after those of Mrs. Mack's.

Mrs. C. R. Butler returned home Tuesday evening from a visit to Marshfield, having spent five weeks with her parents in that city.

While leaning against one of the show cases at Morlan & Son's store Tuesday morning C. J. Hølem had the misfortune to break the glass.

A. B. Morlan is expecting his brother here soon. He is visiting in Iowa at present and will stop at his home, in California, before coming on to Oregon.

O. F. Cosper, manager of the Independence and Monmouth Telephone Company, was in the city Tuesday distributing new telephone directories to the subscribers.

Several friends were entertained at the A. B. Morlan home last Tuesday night. Music and singing helped to pass away the time and delicious refreshments were served.

Misses Butler, West and Høham and Howard Morlan and Ranie Burkhead will leave Sunday for California to visit the Exposition at San Francisco. They will make the trip by auto.

The announcement was made of the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Withers of Independence, Tuesday. Mrs. Withers is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hall of this city.

Mrs. J. S. Miller and daughter, Miss Florence Benson, were in town from their farm a short distance from here, Tuesday and the former gave the HERALD office a call ordering the paper sent to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Fisk went out to the E. Bogert farm at Kings Valley last week returning home the first of this week. Mr. Fisk says he went fishing but the fish wouldn't stay on the hook and he didn't get any.

The oiling of the main streets in Monmouth has made quite an improvement, laying the dust so that people can walk along with out being covered when an auto goes by. The work here in town was finished last week.

The Evangelical church sent three delegates to the general convention at Jennings Lodge this week, Miss Brant representing the Sunday school, Miss Halvorsen the Young Peoples' Alliance and Rev. F. M. Fisher the church.

Ira Williams went to Airie last week to take his brother's place in the blacksmith shop there while the latter and his wife and her sister, Miss Gladys Evans, who lives south of town, spent the week at Cascadia. Both ladies have been suffering from ptomaine poisoning since the Shady Lane picnic, about six weeks ago but are much better.

Miss Maud Beckley of Carlton is visiting relatives in Monmouth this week.

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstractors, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

Number one 7-foot Cedar posts, $10 per hundred at the Monmouth Lumber Yard.

P. D. Quisenberry has secured his pharmacy papers and is a full fledged druggist now.

Miss Lorena Daniel went to Newberg last Saturday to visit her sister, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler and son Jay left today for a visit at the Exposition at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Poole took Mrs. Pool's sister, Mrs. W. T. Sellers, of Hermiston, to Salem Tuesday on her way to Portland.

Howard Morlan, Ranie Burkhead and Misses Lucille Hood, Marie McComb and Myra Butler made an auto trip to Corvallis Sunday.

Mrs. M. Beckley of Carlton came up Wednesday of last week to visit her son, Cecil and wife and child, leaving for home Sunday.

Miss Elda McDaniel of Portland arrived in Monmouth Sunday for an extended visit with friends being the guest of Mrs. W. E. Smith at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler and sons, C. R. and Jay, made an auto trip Sunday visiting Dr. Butler at Wilsonville and returning by way of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bedwell and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Smith were Newport visitors Sunday. They report a good time and that about 500 people went over on the excursion.

Banker Ira C. Powell and sons returned home Monday evening from the Exposition at San Francisco, making the trip home in five days. They report a pleasant time.

Word has been received from Allen Johnson this week that he and his family had a nice trip to Belknap Springs and only one blowout. He reports it as one of the best trips he has ever taken.

Cal Hølem, Roy Bowman, Byron White and Joe Clark autoed to McMinnville Sunday afternoon and witnessed one of the best baseball games of the season Salem winning from McMinnville 4 to 3 in a thirteen inning contest.

Mrs. Fred Smith and sisters, Misses Florence and Josephine Heffley, went to McMinnville Friday of last week for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Smith and Florence Heffley returned home Sunday and Josephine remained for a week.

Howard Morlan took his mother, Mrs. A. B. Morlan, and Mrs. M. Hart to Independence Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cross and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. P. Carson. Mrs. Cross is a daughter of Mrs. Hart and Mr. Cross is a brother to Mrs. Morlan.

This week ended the Summer school at the Normal and most of the students are leaving today. The next six weeks will be quiet ones in Monmouth and the majority of the citizens will welcome the opening of the Normal and the public school in the Fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl White and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Griner of Yamhill autoed to Monmouth Sunday and visited J. L. Murdock and J. W. White families. Mr. and Mrs. Griner and Mr. White returned home in the evening and Mrs. White went back Tuesday morning.

WASH HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

WASH HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

For Tired Feet A Comfort Treat

YOUR feet are mighty important. Part of your understanding. Can't do business without them. Treat them well. Clothe them with—

Black Cat Hose

For smart, snappy style get 325—pure silk thread hose, no adulterants—beautiful sheen—50c. For business needs—235—silk lisle, right wearing sheerness. good luster—25c.

All gentlemen's half hose, wearproof at heel, toe and sole by special Black Cat process. Get a pair today.

AT THE

V. F. DANIEL STORE

Diamond W Groceries

The Goods of Quality and Quantity for the LEAST MONEY.

Allen T. Clark

C. E. Huntley of Talmage was a pleasant caller at the HERALD office Wednesday.

Miss Tressa Churchman came up from Corvallis Wednesday for a visit with Mable Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bonney of The Dalles are visiting relatives and friends in Monmouth this week. They are former residents of Polk county.

Gordon and Charlie Bowman and Ed Griffa of this place, and two men from Harrisburg by the names of Cannoy and Kraemer, went on a camping trip up the McKenzie river last Wednesday. They expect to spend several days and to catch all the fish they can eat.

After having spent several weeks visiting her parents at Springfield, Mrs. C. A. Arehart returned home the latter part of last week.

G. T. Boothby, Mrs. Mary Guin and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strain autoed to Salem Sunday. While there they visited different places of interest, returning home in the evening.

Fred Smith, Grover, Frank and Ora Hinkle, W. J. Mulkey, Ted Buchanan and Stanton Ogsbury drove to the Siletz river Saturday evening on a camping trip. While there Fred, W. J., Frank and Ted went fishing and report a catch of about 400. They returned home Sunday evening.

The editor is improving steadily and helped out with the paper this week, but is not able to do very much and it will probably be another week or so before he will fill his usual place in the office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. LaFollette and family of Salem came over last Saturday and are spending the week with the Ostroms at Sunshine Farm. Mr. LaFollette is a nephew of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin and a cousin of Senator LaFollette of Salem. The family came here recently from Siloam Springs, Arkansas, and expect to remain as they are very much in love with Oregon.