Four School Children Made Highest Scores in Industrial Club Work at Recent Fair

Francelle Hawley of the Bethel School, May E. McDonald of the Dallas School, Harold Reynolds of the Buena Vista School and Johnny Voth of the Orchards School were the four in the county who made the highest scores in the Industrial Club Work at the recent county fair. The conditions being that they must have the greatest score in any two projects, this admitting them to the Boys & Girls Camp at Salem during the entire week of the fair and these four have accordingly reported at the fair grounds and are enjoying the fair.

The following pupils won first place in the club projects of the Industrial Work, the prize being a trip to the State Fair for one day with all expenses paid and they will make this trip next Friday:

Raymond Hall, Buena Vista; Earl Conkey, Monmouth; Homer Bursell, Mistletoe; John Tilgner, Polk Station; Ebben Ray, Butler; Warren McGowan, Hopville; Earl Cooley, Bethel; Lennie Bowles, Salt Creek; Ed Brown, North Dallas; Helen Schindler, Brush College; Benjamin Rickley, Dallas; Martin Prather, Buena Vista, and Glen Harmon, Elkins.

Supt. H. C. Seymour will have charge of these children and will endeavor to give them a good time.

Work Progressing

The Normal Training School building is rapidly taking on shape and the brick layers are at work this week on the second story and should be nearing completion of the brick work in about another ten days providing the weather holds good. The new building will be a fine piece of work and will add luster to the Normal and to the city of Monmouth.

The State Fair in Session

The state fair at Salem opened Monday with excellent weather, a display having been heretofore unequalled and an attendance estimated at 4,000 persons.

The display is larger than usual as more counties have sent in exhibits. Monmouth and vicinity are well represented as many of the citizens of this section of Polk county are attending.

Married

Two couples from this place were united in marriage at Dallas Thursday of last week, the contracting parties being Christopher C. Lee and Miss Mary A. Crabtree, and Miss Jeanne Hunt and Leonard E. McCaleb.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee arrived home the latter part of the week and on last Monday night the boys gave them a charivari and received a treat.

Leg Broken in Runaway

Mrs. Walker, daughter of Dr. Ketchum, of Independence had her left limb broken above the ankle Monday, by jumping from a wagon just in front of the Independence water works.

The team which had started to run away was stopped shortly after the accident, without having done themselves or load any damage. The break was a bad one as the bones was projected through the flesh. She was taken to hospital for treatment.

This town is a small town. This store is a small store, and both the town and store are O. K. in every sense. What we have in the way of watches, jewelry, silverware and cut glass we can sell you at exactly the same price as the largest store in the largest city in the state would charge.

What you want that we have not got we can furnish for you in less time than a mail order house would furnish it—and we guarantee our price to be no higher.
