

Reduction on Buggies and Harness

Whether you are thinking of purchasing a buggy or not or if you are needing new harness, come in and look our stock over; you will want to buy when you see what we have.

That old buggy that you have been driving for the past several years won't hold together much longer, and now is your opportunity to get a new one while the prices are lowered.

WINEGAR & LORENCE

Monmouth, Oregon

Local and Personal

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstractors, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

Greatly reduced prices on all lines of lumber at the Monmouth Lumber Yard. 30

If your subscription to THE HERALD is due, better pay up now and get the big magazine club we offer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lenhart returned to their home at Springfield last Friday, having spent ten days in Monmouth.

W. R. Coulter of Dallas registered at Hotel Monmouth last Sunday having had business which called him this way.

Mrs. John A. Riddell, Mrs. Vernon J. Brown and Miss Gaynelle Shore were Salem visitors Saturday afternoon of last week.

Byron White spent the week end at home returning to his school at Marquam Sunday evening in company with Harold Haley and Misses Marie Morlan and Laurel Canning who took him back in an auto returning that evening.

Louise Deultgen, 11-year old daughter of Fred Deultgen, was taken Wednesday to the hospital at Dallas where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. The appendix had bursted, but she went through the operation well and up to the present time is getting along fine.—Falls City News.

Sam Morrison was in Monmouth Monday with both hands more or less tied up. Our reporter inquired the cause but Sam said never mind him, but we ought to see the other fellow. It developed that Sam was suffering from ringworm on one hand and a slight touch of hop poisoning on the other.

OBITUARY

Elizabeth McCaleb was born in Chambersburg, Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, October 16, 1836, and died October 6, 1915, aged 78 years, 11 months and 21 days.

At the age of 19 she was united in marriage to Moses Bressler, and also at that age she was united with the Lutheran church, of which church she remained a member until the time of her death. Not living near her church, her church work was mostly with the Christian church. Her husband, Moses Bressler, passed to the Great Beyond eight years ago. She came to Oregon with her husband and five children in the year of 1878. To mourn her loss she leaves five children, three sons and two daughters, who are W. A. Bressler of Monmouth, H. C. Bressler of Salem, J. B. Bressler of Grass Valley, Mrs. Ralph Woolery of Salem, and Mrs. W. D. Gilliam of Dallas. She also leaves seven grand children and one great grand child.

The funeral service took place in the Christian church here Thursday afternoon of last week and was conducted by Pastor George C. Ritchey.

Fell One Story

Arthur Ireland of Forest Grove, who is doing carpenter work on the training school building, received a severe shaking up Thursday evening of last week by a fall from the third floor. He struck with his breast upon a staging horse, and although there were no bones broken he was injured so that breathing for awhile was very difficult. He left Friday but was able to return to his work Monday.

Monmouth Heights

Will Mack of Monmouth was on the Heights Monday.

Joe Housman and family have moved to Independence.

Fishback Brothers laid a new cement sidewalk recently.

Allen Towns is preparing to put a new roof on his barn.

Kenneth Huggins spent Sunday with relatives in Falls City.

Guy Hewitt of the Luckiamute was here on business last week.

Henry Lewis of Falls City was seen in our neighborhood Monday.

William Fishback of Carlton is visiting at the Fishback home this week.

Ira Sullivan and mother of McTimmond Valley passed over the Heights Monday.

Mr. Scott and Pete Cornwell of Monmouth are erecting a new silo for Geo. Chesebro.

Frank Clarke and James Goodman are hauling their winter wood from here this week.

Walter Tice and family of Falls City are the guests of Mrs. Tice's mother, Mrs. A. J. Shipley.

Geo. Swearingen and family spent Sunday with his brother, Frank, and family at Oakdale.

Mr. Welch and family of Independence moved on to the F. W. Treanor place here the past week.

Rufus Smith and son, Roy, have been erecting some new wire fencing on the former's place here.

Miss Ruby Rasmussen, the Sunny Slope teacher, visited with friends in Monmouth Saturday and Sunday.

The Sunny Slope people met Monday evening at the school house and voted a 3 mill tax to have a well digged and walled.

Allie Griffith and family returned to their home at Rose Lodge this week after a visit with Mrs. Griffith's father, A. J. Shipley.

Brighten your house with "Peerless" Mazda lamps before the long rainy season begins.

"2 times the light at the same expense."

10 watt 8 candle power bulbs	27c
15 watt 13 candle power bulbs	27c
25 watt 23 candle power bulbs	27c
40 watt 38 candle power bulbs	27c
60 watt 60 candle power bulbs	36c

"If it is electric we will get it."

MORLAN & SON

First National Bank Monmouth, Oregon

Paid Capital, $30,000.00
Surplus & Undivided Profits, $17,000.00

Established 1889.

IRA C. POWELL, President; J. B. V. BUTLER, Vice Pres.
W. E. SMITH, Cashier.

We offer the best service consistent with sound banking, and solicit your business.

Interest paid on time deposits.

DIRECTORS:

I. M. SIMPSON, F. S. POWELL, WM. RIDDELL,
J. B. V. BUTLER, IRA C. POWELL.

C. G. GRIFFA, Plumber and Steam Fitter.

Carries in Stock

Bath Tubs, Toilet Fixtures and all kinds of Plumbers' Supplies, nickel-plated or otherwise.

All orders attended to promptly and work guaranteed.
MONMOUTH, OREGON