11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for Sunday morning, "The Backslider." His conditions and feelings, "Without Strength" but not beyond hope. The hope of the backslider. Subject for Sunday evening service, "Christ Crucified." A stumbling block to some, and foolishness to others, but still the power of God and the wisdom of God.

The sermons being preached by the Evangelist, Rev. C. L. Schuster, are highly enjoyed by all who are attending the meetings. Sunday is expected to be a big day. You are invited.

Priscilla Club

The Club meeting of Dec. 18 was held at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Ackerman.

The feature of the afternoon program being an educational one of practical value, as Mrs. Thos. Edwards gave a talk from the view points of a trained and experienced nurse on the subject of bandages, treating every branch of the subject in a thorough and concise manner, illustrating her talk by practical demonstrations.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. E. Smith.

The Club will be entertained Saturday, Jan. 15, 1916, at the Beckley home, with the resident teachers as hostesses.

Miss Laura Taylor will have charge of the program.

Jewelry Talk

We are showing a very interesting collection of jewelry that is inexpensive--comparatively--yet looks as fine as the more costly. These are very handsome pieces, set with semi-precious stones, remarkably attractive combinations.
