Boy Scout Meeting Held

The Boy Scouts of Monmouth held an extra meeting Friday, the 21, to pay the annual Scout dues of 25 cents which goes to National Headquarters at New York City for general Scout expenses. While the meeting was held the Scout Master, Mr. Cornwell, appointed the patrol leader and the Scouts elected a Scout scribe.

The senior patrol leaders were the patrol leaders of last year. The patrol leader of the Eagle patrol is Willie Harvey and senior patrol leader is Ellis Fisher and the patrol leader of the Wolf patrol is Clay Moreland and Denzie Moore, senior. Ellis Fisher was elected Scout scribe. The assistant patrol leaders have not been appointed as yet, as the patrol leaders have the right to appoint them.

The troop was organized one year ago the 24 of January and has been going as good as expected the last year.

A SCOUT.

P. D. Quisenberry and C. J. Holm of Dallas came over to Monmouth last Saturday evening and spent the night and Sunday with friends.
