

If you want the best
in PLOWS buy

The farmer who buys either the New Deere Gang or Sulky Plow gets absolutely the finest, most servicable implement of its kind ever produced. Before buying such a tool you'll want to know how it's built, how it works and what it will do for you. As to quality of the material and workmanship the name Deere on it is a sufficient guarantee for you on those points. For ease of operation and light draft the New Deere will be a happy surprise to you. The many new features which enable the operator to do work with it he never could do before, with a sulky or gang plow, are marvels of simplicity and effectiveness. It takes a whole book and a lot of illustrations to explain them all, and we know you will want to read the book.

We feel sure we have just what you want in wire fencing

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Buena Vista has organized a Commercial Club.

Which are you trying to do—boost this town or bust this town?

Claude Smith of Myrtle Creek was in Monmouth on business Thursday of last week.

Howard Morlan and Joe Clark visited Cal Holem and P. D. Quisenberry at Dallas Sunday evening.

The contract for operating the ferry at Independence has been let by the Polk county court to George Wilson of Independence.

Several of the Normal School faculty and a number of students attended the play "Peg O' My Heart" at Salem last Saturday night.

Invitations were received here this week for a St. Patrick's dance at Independence Friday night, March 17, to be given by the Wacontas dancing club of that place.

A South Dakota county agent has developed a trade in apples by parcel post in his community, which has resulted in material advantage to the producer. He found that bushel crates of apples could be delivered throughout the second zone at a cost of 64 cents, including postage, packing, and other necessary expenses. The apples were sold to the consumer at $1.64 a box, $1 being paid for the fruit at the point of shipment. Apples had been selling at 65 cents a box before the plans was put in operation. The project will be continued another year and plans for a fruit-growers' cooperative association are being made, so that there will be a system of grading and packing, and reasonable prices may be maintained.

EGGS FOR HATCHING

Well now is the time to be figuring on setting those hens for early chicks. If you favor the heavy breeds I can furnish you eggs for hatching from two especially mated pens of Barred Rocks of the famous O. A. C. laying strain.

One pen is mated with two choice male birds direct from the O. A. C. farm and the other pen with two choice male birds of my own raising.

I have decided to change the price of these settings to $1 for 15.

A. H. CRAVEN,

CARLTON NURSERY CO.,
CARLTON, OREGON.

Laws Relating to Fur-Bearing Animals

A summary of laws in the United States and Canada in force in 1915 relating to the trapping, protecting, and bounties of fur-bearing animals will shortly be published by the Biological Survey of the Department of Agriculture as Farmers' Bulletin 706. This publication, which reviews the laws of States, Territories, and Provinces, will be found a convenient reference book by those who hunt or trap.

Notice Of Sale Of The Old Domestic Science Building, Property Of The School District

Sealed bids will received up to 2 o'clock P. M. on the 18th day of March 1916 for the sale of the old Domestic science building belonging to the school district; sale having been authorized by the voters of the district. The building to be moved from the Normal School ground within thirty days from date of sale. Right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board of Directors of School District No. 13 of Polk County, Oregon.

Monmouth, Oregon, March 4th, 1916.

MRS. MINA CORNELIUS,
Clerk of the Board.

Wrong Lawyer.

A briefless lawyer not long past his bar examinations was waiting for business when a farmer dropped in.

"Say, young man, I see by the sign outside that you're a lawyer," was the salutation. The briefless lawyer looked very wise and nodded his head.

"Well, if you're a lawyer you can tell me something. If I sell a man a horse and he gives me a promissory note in payment and he doesn't pay up his note can I go to his barn and take his horse away?"

"You certainly can't," said the lawyer. "You'll have to sue him to recover the value of the note?"

"Can't, eh? Well, I guess I'll get another lawyer. I've done it."—New York Sun.

Lady Hazzard.

Jack Hazzard, the comedian, has a letter from a friend in Boston which he treasures. The letter contains a bona fide account of an answer made by a grammar school pupil in Boston during the course of an examination in English.

The youngster, a boy, was called on to spell and define the word hazardous. This was his reply:

"H-a-z-a-r-d-e-o-u-s—a female hazard."—Saturday Evening Post.
