

All Purpose Dip!

Used for Sheep
dipping, Lice on hogs. Spray your chicken house.
Kill the Flies.
Does Not Grime the Hair.

Perkins Phar- macy

If we haven't got it,
we'll get it. Ask us.

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Miss Marie Smith, who is teaching at Buena Vista, spent her week-end vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith. Mr. Smith and daughter Mable took her back to her work in their automobile.

W. W. Haines of Eugene was a visitor here last week to see his twin brother, departing for his home Friday. The brothers who are the oldest twins in Oregon will be 88 years of age the first of August.

FOR SALE—A four-year-old horse. Phone 1811. W. A. Wood. 3318

Arthur Burkhead who is principal at West Salem visited in Monmouth over Saturday and Sunday.

C. B. Stone, photographer of Dallas, has been chosen councilman in that city to succeed W. L. Barber, resigned.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters.

Jay Knapp was laid out for a short time Tuesday morning when he was struck by a falling two by four on the building on which he was working.

Miss Kate Henderson was over from Lebanon for a week-end visit last week.

Byron White, who teaches at Marquam in Marion county, was a visitor in Monmouth Saturday and Sunday.

A party consisting of Howard Morlan, Frank Brumbaugh, Tom Ostien and Floyd Williams autoed to Eugene last Friday for a visit.

SALESMEN WANTED. Everywhere, to sell our complete line of nursery stock. Write for particulars. DONALD NURSERY CO., Inc. DONALD, ORE.

M. L. Boyd of the Dallas Itemizer, who was entertaining relatives last week, was one of a family party out for an auto ride last Saturday, in the course of which they visited Monmouth, and Mr. Boyd seized advantage of the opportunity to make a fraternal visit at the office of the Herald. The party was being personally conducted by W. L. Tooze, Jr., of the county seat.

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstractors, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

President Ackerman of the Normal school, was absent yesterday at Portland whither he had gone with an auto load of young men from the Normal to witness the big school children pageant, May pole dancing, drills, calisthenics, etc., in which 6,000 children participated.

WANTED—Wool and Mohair, by Geo. E. Brey, Independence, Oregon. 3118

Oak wood for sale, by the rick. F. P. Lefever. Leave orders at the Herald office. 3714

The John Robinson Ten Big Shows will appear at Salem May 25th.

A Five Passenger Ford Car

was recently added to my equipment and is for hire as well as Rigs and Horses.

All Kinds of Transferring Done Promptly and on Short Notice

Livery and Feed Stable

GORDAN BOWMAN, Proprietor.

Monmouth, Oregon

C. G. GRIFFA, Plumber and Steam Fitter.

Carries in Stock

Bath Tubs, Toilet Fixtures and all kinds of Plumbers' Supplies, nickel-plated or otherwise.

All orders attended to promptly and work guaranteed.
MONMOUTH, OREGON

Books, Magazines, Tobaccos

Ice Cream and Sodas

WE HAVE THEM

D. C. Walker & Sons

Monmouth, Oregon

Try Our Fresh Grocery Stock!

Our Stock is clean and fresh, just from
the supply depot.

Staples, Green Stuff and Canned Goods.

An ample supply
at challenge prices.

MILLER MERCANTILE CO.

Clark's Grocery

When in need of Poultry Supplies

See us for

Chick Feed,
Bone, Shell, Grit,
Charcoal, Bone,
Baby Grit.

Highest price paid for Wool and Mohair

Mohair bags for the asking

Mrs. Susie Hay of Portland was a visitor Sunday with Mrs. Sarah Hager. Mrs. Hay was accompanied by her two daughters and son and the latter's wife. The party came by auto. Mrs. Hay was a resident of Monmouth twenty-four years ago and was much interested in the changes which had taken place. She gave it as her opinion, traveling through the different sections, that Monmouth was the gem of the Willamette valley and one of the prettiest places in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith and James Gentle attended the military ball at Dallas last Friday night.

Mrs. Winter Davidson of Bandon, who is a delegate to the Rebekah Grand Lodge at Roseburg, is expected to visit with friends and relatives in Monmouth before returning home. Will Wright of East Oregon, a delegate to the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge, is also expected to visit here.

Lou Muscot has been named fire chief at Dallas to succeed August Risser, who has held the office several years.

Ranée Burkhead, who has been teaching at Klondike in Sherman county, is expected to wind up his school duties for the year and return to Monmouth this week or next.

There will be no services at the Evangelical church next Sunday as Rev. Fisher will be absent at the conference at Bellingham, Wash.

Walter Murphy of Falls City, aged 32 years, died in a Salem hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Riddell and Mrs. Guy Scheible were visitors in Salem last Friday, going in the Riddell automobile.

H. C. Seymour, state agent for Boys' Industrial clubs, and Miss Cowgill, in a similar capacity for the girls' clubs, were visitors at the local schools Wednesday and examined the classes at the high school and training school.