A. C. Hampton, superintendent of schools at Pendleton, stopped off in Monmouth Sunday for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hampton. He was on his way to Eugene on business and thought he would stop there to attend summer school. Mr. Hampton was recently elected superintendent at La Grande but does not know whether he will accept.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown of Portland visited with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. A. Shore, and other relatives in Monmouth during the past week.

Mrs. Cornelius has a sister and niece from Oklahoma stopping with her, who arrived during the past week. The young lady is attending the Normal school.

Mrs. John Riddell left for Portland Sunday to be with her husband who is recuperating in a hospital in that city.

Mrs. Fred Pyle and two daughters left Wednesday for Hardman, East Oregon, to visit Mrs. Pyle's sister, and from there they will go to Montana to make their home.

Mrs. G. D. Quisenberry of Harrisburg was in Monmouth a few days last week and this week calling on old friends. She is having a vacation from her telephone duties and expects to spend a part of it at Newport.

Mrs. Clyde Kiddle and child of Island City have been visiting with her parents, the Murdocks, during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murdock and three children of Yamhill were also visitors at the parental home and Mrs. Lee Griner of Yamhill. J. L. Murdock was at Yamhill to look after matters on the farm during his son's absence in Monmouth.

Sumner Ostrom autoed up from Portland last Sunday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ostrom. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hewitt and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton who spent the day with Mr. Hewitt's grandmother, Mrs. D. M. Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Halleck and son were visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Halleck, several days this week. Mr. Halleck, who is a well known architect and contractor of Newport, had just returned from a visit in Hood River county where he was one of a party to climb Mt. Hood. He is a former resident of Monmouth and was gratified at the exhibition of growth in the city since he moved from here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tobey of Eugene called on Mr. and Mrs. Stone Monday on their way home from Portland. They were riding in a new Studebaker purchased in the metropolis.

E. C. Hamilton of Dallas is a visitor with his brother E. B. Hamilton of the Lumber Co.

R. H. Smith, formerly proprietor of the Monmouth Laundry, got tangled up in a fire rush one day recently and sustained some bodily damages, sufficiently so that he has to resort to crutches to get about. He happened in the way when the Independence fire department was headed for a blaze, and received a gash in his shin and other bruises of the lower extremities.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Heffley and daughters, Mrs. Fred Smith, Gertrude and Josephine autoed to Summit Sunday to visit a friend.

Miss Grace Garvin, who was formerly with the Daniel store but now of the Miller Mercantile store in Newberg, was visiting with friends in Monmouth Saturday and Sunday.
