

KODAK

Cameras

and

Photographic SUPPLIES

Developing and Printing

Take a camera with you on your vacation hike or outing.

Perkins Pharmacy

If we haven't got it, we'll get it. Ask us.

Local Brevities

Next Monday evening the Odd Fellows of Monmouth will install officers at which time there will be a social time, including a feed, and all members are urged to be present and enjoy the good things.

The property of Mrs. Mary Wolf on West Main street has been sold to Josiah Wills, a graduate of the Normal. Mrs. Wolf expects to go to an old folks home in the near future. Mr. Meyers a nephew from New Jersey, has been here for a short time past winding up her affairs in this city.

Miss Minnie Wunder who recently completed her term of school in Eastern Oregon is back for the summer at her home on Monmouth Heights.

William Wright Smith, native of Oregon and 50 years of age died at Dallas last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pheckard June 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harvey and son Robert and D. W. Freeman autoed up from Clatskanie, Ore., in their Saxon Six last Thursday to visit his brother, M. M. Harvey and family. They returned home Saturday. Mr. Freeman is an old friend of Mr. Harvey's.

The call of the bugle has been frequently heard to sound upon the air in Monmouth during the past week. The young men of the city have been taken with the military spirit and are drilling for further orders. Arthur R. Miller of the Monmouth Mercantile is the drill master and captain of the new organization of Home Guards. Mr. Miller is qualified as he has had experience both in the army, navy and cavalry, being a veteran of the Spanish war. Beside Captain Miller the squad has Robert Strong as 1st sergeant, Charles Strong as 2nd sergeant and Willard Strong as bugler.

A Y is to be constructed on the Southern Pacific track at Gerlinger to enable trains to turn at this point.

Among the visitors from Monmouth at the Philomath Round-Up last week were Messrs. and Mesdames Allen Clark, Clark Hembree, Earl White and Clyde Kiddle and Messrs. Paul Riley, J. W. White, Lyman Parker, Ben Pollan, Ed Huber, C. H. Parker, Clarence Daniel, Arthur Burkhead, Clares Powell and Joe Clark. They report the Round-Up program filled with exciting features.

Mrs. Lee Griner of Yamhill visited this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murdock.

Swat the Fly in July

Want a free hair cut boys? To each boy 10 years or under of Monmouth and vicinity who brings in to me a pint of flies, during July, I will give a free hair cut. E. M. EBBERT

Notice to Members

Agate Rebekah Lodge will hold a call meeting Saturday night, July 1. The State President will be present. Refreshments will be served. All members are requested to attend. MINA CORNELIUS, Sec.

Announcement!

We have added

Standard Dress Patterns

to our stock. The Standard Dress Pattern is so well known to the majority of our customers that no extended statement of its merits is necessary. We expect to carry a stock so complete in the average sizes that you can get the pattern you select without the necessity of waiting for us to send for it.

SPECIAL OFFER FOR JUNE

During the remainder of this month we make this special offer to our customers. The Designer for a whole year for 40c. The regular subscription price to this magazine is 75c per year.

Miller Mercantile Company

Miss Margaret Ground of Independence was married to Sergeant Ward M. Ackley of Company E at the armory in Portland early last week.

With characteristic enterprise H. Hirschberg, banker and railroad owner of Independence, started a movement to raise money for extras for the Polk county soldiers and headed the list of subscriptions with a contribution of $25.

A rural aspect becomes a city but some of our citizens think it is pushing it a little too far when a gentle cow backs up on the sidewalk and disputes the passage with the school ma'ams.

Mrs. G. W. Conkey was elected a member of the school board of Independence last week succeeding Mrs. H. B. Fletcher who did not seek re-election. Mrs. Grace Swope was re-elected clerk.

Henry Patton of Independence died June 17th. He was 78 years of age and died of paralysis.

By orders from headquarters the Southern Pacific railroad stations at Rickreall and Dairy Orchard have been changed to Nesbit and Hanley.

A. C. Snyder, a son of A. V. R. Snyder candidate for county treasurer, will be married in September to Miss Goldie Vaughn of Dallas.

A party of seven young men dropped in on Jack Wood Monday evening for a farewell visit at his quarters in the Williams home. Jack, who is one of the popular young men of the Normal, left Tuesday for Eastern Oregon where he will work during the summer and probably secure a school for the winter. The boys took along their own refreshments and smokes and had a royal time. Music helped to pass away several minutes very pleasantly. Those in the party were Messrs. Jack Wood Harold Tallman, "Chub" Dobell, Floyd Williams, Howard Morlan, Frank Brumbaugh, Glen Work and Joe Clark.

4TH of JULY

The best time for your

Vacation Trip

Suggestions for your trip

Golf or tennis at Neah-Kah-Nie
Bathing at Tillamook County Beaches
Gathering agates at Newport
Dedication of Springs at Ashland
Fishing is fine at many points
Rogue River Roundup at Ashland, July 4, 5, 6
Cherry fair at Salem
Celebration at Newport, July 4th

Low Round Trip Fares

between all Southern Pacific stations in Oregon where the one way fare is $6.00 or less on July 1, 2, 3 and 4. Return limit July 5th.

Ask your local agent for further information or write
John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent
Portland, Oregon

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

National Biscuit Company

Demonstration

FREE EATING SAMPLES

Saturday, July the 1st

Clark's Grocery