Extra! Great Scandal.

Two fair maids met in a shop and at once began gossiping, in spite of the fact that they were hindering other customers.

"Oh, have you heard about Phyllis?" exclaimed the one in the white-topped boots, suddenly.

"No," replied she of the pink plumes. "What has she done now?"

"My dear"—in tones of horror—"she's broken off her engagement!"

"Whatever for?"—in tones of still greater horror.

"She went with her fiance to a basketball game and now she says he got far more enthusiastic over the game than he has ever been about her."

He Meant Business.

Mrs. Bennett arrived at the conclusion that the attachment of Teddy Nolan, the policeman, for her cook must be investigated lest it prove disastrous to domestic discipline.

One morning she took Annie, the cook, to task regarding the matter. Annie admitted his attentions.

"Do you think he means business, Annie?" asked Mrs. Bennett.

"Yes, mum, O! think so," replied Annie. "Annyway, he's begun to complain about my cookin', mum."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Quite Expensive.

"We have to bring every bit of soil down to this seashore place to make our gardens."

"But doesn't that cost very much?"

"Well, it isn't what you might call dirt cheap."—Baltimore American.

Mr. Stretcher—Yes, it's cold, but nothing like what it was at Christmas three years ago when the steam from the engines froze hard and fell on the line in sheets.

Mr. Cuffer—And yet that wasn't so cold as in '87, when it froze the electricity in the telephone wires, and when the thaw came all the machines were talking as hard as they could for upwards of five hours.

"Well, gentlemen," said Mr. Longbow, "the coldest year that I can remember was in the Christmas week in '84, when the policemen had to run to keep themselves warm."

But that was too much, and with silent looks of indignation the other two left to his own reflections the man who treated the truth so lightly.

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

As Wheat Season Advances More Grain Bags Are Needed

Portland—There is more inquiry for grain bags now than at any time this season. Sales are not much larger but buyers are showing decidedly more interest in bags, and sellers believe an active market is not far off. It is the improvement in crop conditions in the Northwest that is causing the inquiries to increase. The rains of the past fortnight have led all grain men to raise their estimate of the wheat crop and they are now figuring on a yield of 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels larger than they expected early in June. This condition naturally has produced a firmer bag market. Local quotations are still around the 12-cent mark, but there is not the probability of a decline that dealers faced a short time ago.

The entire coast crop is growing in size and there are no more bags in sight than there were. As a California authority expresses it, for every bag in sight two will be needed. In California, as here, there has not been much buying by farmers in anticipation of crop needs, but this is a condition that cannot last much longer. Much was heard earlier in the season of bulk handling of grain, but it is evident now that there will be but little relief for the situation on this score.

Road Increases Capitol to a Million.

Chehalis, Wash.—The Cowlitz, Chehalis & Cascade railway company in supplemental articles of incorporation has increased its capital stock from $100,000 to $1,000,000. The name of the company has been changed to read as above, instead of the Chehalis, Cowlitz & Cascade. The company has a large crew at work all along its 22 miles of projected line rushing its work and expects to have the road completed to four miles southeast of Onalaska, near Salkum, by fall. The Chehalis Mill company has its plans all completed now to rush work on its new 75,000 sawmill in South Chehalis at once.

Some Grant Crops Damaged.

Canyon City, Ore.—Unsettled weather conditions have prevailed throughout Grant county for the past two weeks. Considerable rain has fallen and has caused damage to some crops and much inconvenience to sheepmen, who are in the midst of shearing operations. The first crop of alfalfa is ready, but owing to the weather conditions, the farmers are delaying the cutting until good curing weather.

Too Bad.

An old Scotch woman who, at considerable personal inconvenience, had gone a good way to visit a friend who was ill, learned on her arrival that the alarming symptoms had subsided.

"An' hoo are ye the day, Mrs. Crawford," she inquired in breathless anxiety.

"Oh, I'm nearly well noo, thank ye, Mrs. Graham."

"Nearly well!" exclaimed the breathless visitor. "After me comin' sae far to see ye, too!"

Slightly Twisted.

Everything was in readiness. The groom, best man and the minister were gathered in the vestry. The organist began to play and the minister started for the door.

"Wait one moment, doctor," called the nervous groom. "Is it the right or left hand the ring goes on?"

"The left," hurriedly replied the minister.

"And, doctor, is—is it customary to cuss the bride?"—Utica Herald.

Why She Remains.

"And you have had the same servant for two years?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Crosslots. "She says she doesn't believe in changing after she has gone to the trouble of teaching a family her ways."—Washington Star.

Not Suffering.

"So," said the neighbor sympathetically, "your baby suffers from sleeplessness, does he?"

"No," responded the haggard and hollow-eyed man, "he doesn't. He seems to enjoy it!"—Pearson's Weekly.

Heredity.

Newpup (anxiously)—Is it a boy or a girl?

Nurse—It's three of 'em, sir—three fine boys.

Newpup—Great Scott! This comes from marrying a girl whose father is in the wholesale line.—Boston Transcript.

Possible Reason.

"I wonder why they built that Chinese wall."

"Sort of a compromise, I presume. I judge there was a strong disarmament party in those days."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Appraised.

Wife—How does my new spring hat look, Tom?

Hub—Um! It looks to me like two weeks' salary!—Boston Transcript.

Better.

Two suitors had striven for the hand of Mary Murphy. One was Doonan, a prosperous grocer, and he was backed up by Pa and Ma Murphy; the other was a handsome young clerk, and he was backed up by Mary.

The clerk won.

On the morning of her first birthday after the wedding day Mary called to see her parents, and proudly showed them a pretty little gold watch which her husband had given her.

But Mrs. Murphy sniffed contemptuously.

"That's very nice," she said disapprovingly; "but if ye'd only taken the advice of yer father and me, 'tis not a gold watch ye'd be havin' in yer pocket, but a good eight day clock!"

NEW MODERN DANCING.

E. Fletcher Hallamore, the leading Dancing Expert and Instructor in New York City, writes: "I have used ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, for ten years, and recommend it to all my pupils." It cures and prevents sore feet. Sold by all Drug and Department Stores, 25c. Sample FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

Even.

A popular London clergyman was once staying a few days at a country house with some friends. On the Monday morning he was playing tennis with a young man he could usually beat, but for some reason or other the clergyman was not in form, and was fared badly.

Between games he remarked to his opponent, "I simply can't stand your service today!"

"Then we're quits!" was the cheeky reply. "I couldn't stand yours yesterday!"

Bits of Advice.

"Yes, we married in haste. I hope my husband doesn't repent at leisure."

"Demand pretty clothes and everything else you think a girl should have. Keep his nose to the grindstone. Don't let him have any leisure."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Application has been received by the government from mountaineers in the southern Appalachians, to buy all of the black birch bark in one of the national forests of that region. The bark is used to make sweet-birch oil, a substitute for wintergreen oil.

Her Own Fault.

Mistress—Mary, don't let me catch you kissing the grocer's boy again.

Mary—Lor' mum, I don't mean to, but you do bob around so.—Boston Transcript.

The manufacture of tanks, silos, wood pipe and conduits ranks third among the wood using industries of Oregon. High grade Douglas fir is the chief wood serving the needs of this industry.

Kitchener's Work for the Empire.

Kitchener will be remembered for four great constructive works of organization, carried out in Egypt, South Africa, India and England. In each case his work was creative and revolutionary in conception, and carried out with the utmost precision in every least detail. No man touched the world-extended British Empire at more points, or touched it with such decisive, fateful effect. It may be said, indeed, that the integrity of the Empire, in the twentieth century, is the work of Kitchener. Four dangers arose, in regions separated by vast continental spaces; in each region, Kitchener met the danger, piercingly diagnosed the cause, patiently and courageously overcame it. Every honor within the power of his countrymen to give him was offered to Kitchener; yet all honors fall short of his immense attainment.—From "Kitchener of Khartoum," by Charles Johnston; in the American Review of Reviews for July, 1916.

Guardsmen to Be Aided.

District Forester George H. Cecil, Portland, Ore., has received the following telegram from the Chief Forester, Henry S. Graves, Washington, D. C., in reference to employees of the Forest Service who belong to the National Guard: "Forester desires to aid employees who are members of the National Guard to fulfill their military obligations. For this purpose he will approve applications for leave and will so far as possible consistent with civil service rules and future appropriations, assure them restoration to present positions after completion of service in the army. Please report immediately approximate number of employees in district who are members of Guard and will probably request leave in response to the President's call."

Misplacing the Blame.

"O-o-o-oh! Bo-o-o-ho-o-o!"

As the childish wail rang through the house the anxious mother sprang to her feet. Rushing into the hall she met her little daughter coming in from the garden and carrying a broken doll by the leg.

"What's the matter, darling?" she asked tenderly.

"O-o-oh, mo-o-ther," howled the child. "Willie's broken my do-oll!"

"The naughty boy! How did he do it?"

"I—I hit him on the head wiv it!" was the slow response.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.
