E. E. Paddock of the Independence school board was a visitor in Monmouth Tuesday and made the Herald office a brief call.

Maurice J. Butler, dentist. Pyorrhea and Porcelain fillings a specialty. Rooms over Post-office, Monmouth, Or. 44tf

E. M. Ebbert was a visitor in Portland from Sunday to Tuesday where he went to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Chalfoue.

Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Ostien and son Thomas and Floyd Williams journeyed to Portland Friday night with the intention of taking in the automobile races. The races were postponed a week because of the weather and the Ostien party returned Sunday.

Ed Pagenkoff of Monmouth and J. G. McIntosh autoed to Canby Wednesday on a land deal.—Monitor.

Mrs. J. S. Conkey of this city visited with her daughter, Mrs. Dick Webster, in Dallas during the Chautauqua week.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron White started for Tillamook Wednesday, bright and early, with their personal effects safely stowed behind in the automobile. Howard Morlan acted as chauffeur.

Fred Olsen is in Eastern Washington where he registered at Omak for a farm in the Colville Indian reservation opening. Miss Bonnie Olsen left Wednesday for Omak with the same intention.

Mrs. M. J. Coleman and Mrs. E. J. Smith were among the visitors in Salem Saturday who went on the excursion. They visited at the Old Ladies' Home in the capitol city where they saw Mrs. Wolf who recently left Monmouth to take up her home there. Mrs. Wolf is very much pleased with her new surroundings.

The excursion train that was backed into Monmouth last Saturday morning for the trip to Salem over the S. P. was one of the longest that has entered the city and there was a large company who took advantage of the opportunity to visit the capital of the state. An all day rain was in session however and this spoiled much of the enjoyment of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Portwood came from Eckley last Friday and after visiting for a few days here Mr. and Mrs. Portwood returned to their home near Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton returned to Eckley Tuesday. Mr. Hampton's lease on the old Joe Haines place has expired and he has disposed of his stock, with a view to discontinuing ranching for a time at least. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton expect to leave in a few weeks for San Francisco, from where they are planning an auto tour through the Southern States that will take them as far east as Georgia.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.
