

WELL!

Why don't you use A. D. S. Peroxide Cream for those calloused hands? It will make them soft in one night. Peroxide Cream is a mild bleach and the best preparation for the face and hands. It is greaseless. In 25 and 50c sizes.

If you don't like it we will refund the money.

Perkins Pharmacy

If we haven't got it, we'll get it. Ask us.

Local Brevities

Miss Frances Quisenberry of Harrisburg is visiting relatives and friends in Monmouth.

For lack of a quorum the council adjourned its regular meeting from Tuesday night to Wednesday night.

Maurice J. Butler, dentist, Pyorrhea and Porcelain Fillings a specialty. Office over Post Office, Monmouth, Or. 44tf

They are catching bass in the Willamette at Independence, the result of fry let loose in the river some time ago. Monmouth people who have tried their luck have failed to report big catches.

Miss Luella Brewster of Eugene visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. E. Brewster several days last week and this week. Miss Brewster will go to Muskogee, Oklahoma, to accept a position in the Bacone Indian school.

Dr. Bowersox and family started Wednesday morning on an auto trip through the Tillamook country. Mr. Gray and daughter of Corvallis, in another auto, accompanied them. They go first to Bay City to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Prime.

Bert Cross is building himself a home for his clothes cleaning business on land belonging to W. W. Newman on Main street. Bert is architect, contractor and builder and if the structure is not built to suit him it will be his own fault.

A successful fishing party was that composed of Ed Griffo, Harold Haynie, Floyd Williams and Joe Clark who made the trip in the Haynie car to the Siletz Saturday night. Ed Griffo was pilot for the party and made good, for all returned with fine catches.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Halleck started overland for Newport Wednesday morning where they will visit with their son and see the sights of that resort.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDonald left Monday for a week's vacation at Nye Beach. Their daughters Marian and Hope and Miss Wilda Fuller accompanied them.

While repairing a binder for Ray Adams last Thursday E. H. Lorence sustained a severe injury when the machine fell upon his left foot and fractured an ankle bone.

Mrs. J. O. Matthis and children returned Sunday from a few day's visit with relatives at Amity. Doctor returned a short time before from a fishing trip but he didn't tell us of his catch.

E. B. Hamilton moved into his new bungalow Monday and is now enjoying all the comforts of a home of his own. The house, although small, is a model of convenience. The Stitt house, vacated by Mr. Hamilton, is to be occupied by Gordon Bowman and wife.

Through mistaken information the Herald published not long since that Mrs. Geo. Conkey had been chosen to succeed Miss Almeda Fuller in the Independence high school. Mrs. Conkey is a member of the Independence school board and was not a candidate for a position as teacher as stated.

Miss Augusta Baker, former chorus instructor at the local high school, left Friday with her mother for Portland. Mrs. Baker will remain in Portland this winter but her daughter will go to Marshfield where she has been re-elected as primary teacher in one of the schools. The best wishes of the people of Monmouth go with both these ladies.

Paul Baker and family took dinner with the Misses Maggie and Alice Butler Tuesday while enroute by auto to Fossil, Ore., where Mr. Baker will teach during the coming school year. Mr. Baker, who is a graduate of the Normal, was at one time selected by the board as principal of the Monmouth high school but preferred later the higher salary offered at Fossil.

Alex McLeod and Harold Haley were hosts at a bachelor spread at the Haley home last Wednesday evening in which they placed before seven invited male friends all the best that Polk county affords. Fried chicken, ice cream and various fruits occupied prominent places on the menu and the crowning feature was a bachelor lemon pie. There was music and oratory mixed in and the departing guests vowed that nothing like it had ever occurred before. It was a grand old feed and a grand old time.

Library Closed

The floors of the high school building are being oiled this week because of which it has been deemed wise to close the city library until September.

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT'S

New Novel

"When a Man's a Man"

will be on sale after Thursday, Aug. 10
Price $1.35, net

Ask us to lay aside a copy for you

WALKER'S BOOK STORE

White Canvas Shoes

are so much worn this season.

We have several different styles in a complete run of sizes

at prices from

$1.65 to $3.50

Both rubber and leather soles.

High top shoes and pumps.

Miller Mercantile Company

ALLEN T. CLARK

The Exclusive Grocer

PHONE 302

A Farewell Party

On Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church gave a farewell reception in honor of Mesdames Baker, Leask and Murdock, who have been members of their organization but have moved away. Delicious refreshments were served to about twenty guests and after a pleasant afternoon had been spent those present said "good-bye" to these ladies. The best wishes of all went with them to their new homes although all regretted to see them leave.

Walker to Wed

On Tuesday the 15th of August

Dean H. Walker of Moore and Walker, furniture men of Independence, is to wed Miss Virginia Adell Peterson. Of the wedding which will be a large and smart event the Eugene Guard says:

"The ceremony is performed in the Grace Episcopal church in Astoria at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Peterson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Peterson and is a graduate of the university with the 1916 class. She is a beautiful young woman of the blonde type and unusually lovable disposition. Besides being possessed of a voice of rare charm, she is a talented actress and has appeared in many college productions. She was a member of the women's glee club and for one year was president of the organization. She is a member of Kappa Theta fraternity. Mr. Walker is also a graduate of the University, being a member of the class of 1913. Throughout his college days he was a football and basketball man of much prominence and in his senior year was captain of the football team. The year following his graduation he acted as graduate manager for university athletics. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. Mr. Walker is now in business in Independence, and it is there that he and his bride will make their home."