

WELL!

Why don't you use A. D. S. Peroxide Cream for those calloused hands? It will make them soft in one night. Peroxide Cream is a mild bleach and the best preparation for the face and hands. It is greaseless. In 25 and 50c sizes.

If you don't like it we will refund the money.

Perkins Pharmacy

If we haven't got it, we'll get it. Ask us.

Local Brevities

Mrs. J. S. Miller spent the week-end visiting friends at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Wm. Bergman of Placer, Ore., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller.

Maurice J. Butler, dentist. Pyorrhea and Porcelain Fillings a specialty. Office over Post Office, Monmouth, Or. 44tf

Miss Lila Dobell of Corvallis arrived in Monmouth last week to spend a part of her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dobell.

A broken window in the Miller store Monday morning led to the belief that burglary had been attempted although nothing was missing from the store.

P. J. Mulkey of Arlington was here for a visit with relatives the latter part of last week. Mrs. Mulkey accompanied him and they made the trip by auto.

E. M. Ebbert leaves Monday with his family for a two week's vacation with his brother and family who live close to Philomath. Both weeks, Mr. Ebbert will return for the Saturday business. During the remaining days of the two weeks, his assistant Ralph Stewart will be in charge.

W. E. Haynie and family left Tuesday on a trip by automobile up the Columbia highway on a sightseeing trip to be gone a few days.

Russell Quisenberry who is a student at the University of Oregon was a visitor last Thursday and Friday with his brother, P. D. Quisenberry and with Monmouth friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scheible departed Sunday for Coos county where Mr. S. will hunt the festive deer and Mrs. S. visit with relatives and old friends while recalling girlhood experiences in Bandon and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Murdock were here from Yamhill last Friday and Mr. M. as mayor of our fair city attended a special session with the city dads in the evening. The Murdocks expect soon to build a bungalow on their vacant lot on Bond street.

Our scrap iron orchestra waited on the newly wed Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bowman on their return to Monmouth Thursday evening. Several classical tunes were played before the program was completed, when the groom appearing, the boys were sent to the refreshment parlors to toast the health of the bride in carbonated waters.

Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Craven of Monmouth, Willard Craven and son of Independence Riley Craven and son of Dallas and Alva Craven of Monmouth and the latter's father-in-law, Henry Hesse of Bandon, accompanied by Mrs. Lora Butler and a family from Independence left Sunday morning for an outing at Cascade.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell are back from an Eastern trip of a year's duration and are living in their house in this city recently vacated by D. L. Keyte and family. Mr. and Mrs. Howell have spent the year in Omaha with their daughter, Mrs. R. C. Nichols who returned with them and will visit here until the appearance of cooler weather in the east. They are having a hot summer in Omaha where the thermometer has recorded as high as 103 degrees. Mrs. Nichols is a graduate of the Normal, class of 1907. Her husband is manager and buyer for the Carpenter Paper Co. of Omaha.

 Dr. Bancroft
Eyesight specialist of Salem, Oregon will be at Hotel Monmouth Tuesday, Aug. 22. Will make regular trips. All work guaranteed.

News of our Neighborhood

Mistletoe

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lowe of Dallas visited with Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Hull Tuesday.

Mr. Leslie Riddell returned to his home in Texas the last week, taking with him a bunch of stock.

Mr. A. J. Larson has been quite ill the past week, being confined to his bed for several days.

Mrs. F. K. Hull spent the week-end in Portland with J. H. Remington's. Mrs. Remington is getting weaker all the time.

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT'S New Novel

"When a Man's a Man"

will be on sale after Thursday, Aug. 10
Price $1.35, net

Ask us to lay aside a copy for you

WALKER'S BOOK STORE

White Canvas Shoes

are so much worn this season.

We have several different styles in a complete run of sizes

at prices from

$1.65 to $3.50

Both rubber and leather soles.

High top shoes and pumps.

Miller Mercantile Company

ALLEN T. CLARK

The Exclusive Grocer

PHONE 302

Miss Laura Larson is staying with Mrs. T. J. Alsip during the busy season.

Mr. T. J. Alsip purchased the C. E. Lockwood place the last week.

Mr. Arthur Moore has cut his first crop of Sudan Grass and is well pleased with the prospects of a second crop.

Mr. T. J. Alsip has been sick for several days of the past week.

Mrs. Arthur Moore has been feeling quite poorly the past week.

Monmouth Heights

Jack Moore of Monmouth was here to see Clay Guthridge on business last Wednesday.

John Doughty of Monmouth assisted Roy Smith in hauling in his hay from here to Monmouth last week.

Will Block of Independence was in this vicinity one day last week.

George Swearingen and family were visitors to the Wm. Percival hop yard near Independence the first of the week.

H. R. and Len Fishback are taking their vacation at Newport.

Elmer Rake and family of Monmouth were Sunday visitors with Elmer Allen and wife.

Clay Guthridge and family and

Mrs. Addie Wallace were traders in Monmouth Saturday.

George Sullivan of Monmouth was seen in this neighborhood last Sunday.

John Sumpter and Will Ford of Falls City passed over the Heights to Independence last Thursday.

Chas. Osborne and Mr. Comstock started their thresher last Monday.

Arthur Moore of Mistletoe and Ray Adams north of Monmouth were seen in this vicinity Monday afternoon.

Mr. Raffet and a crowd from Independence passed over the Heights enroute to the mountains last Tuesday.