

WALL PAPER

A Fresh Stock just received in luding several very pretty patterns.

Perkins Pharmacy

If we haven't got it, we'll get it. Ask us.

Local Brevities

Frank, otherwise known as "Slim" McLoughlin was a visitor in Monmouth a few days last week. He has been transferred from his position at Cow Creek Canyon but is still in the cow country, being now at Derry.

Mrs. J. W. White, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hickman and Howard Morlan left Wednesday in Hickman's car for Tillamook. Mrs. White expects to stay for the winter. Mr. White will join her there later in the fall.

Ladies' Shampooing

E. M. Ebbert announces the installation in the Monmouth Barber Shop of a hair dryer and will do Ladies' Shampooing two evenings in the week, Tuesdays and Fridays from 7:00 to 9:00. Plain shampooing, 50c. Other shampooing, 75c. He also has an electric massage machine and can do Ladies' Face Massage work. Ladies' Shoes Shined at all hours. Patrons may be acomodated at shop or may leave shoes.

Jack Wood was a week-end visitor in Monmouth at the homes of Howard Morlan and Floyd Williams. The boys took him over to Orville Sunday evening to catch the Oregon Electric for Junction City, near which place Mr. Wood is teaching.

Miss Pearl Walker of Bandon was a visitor several days during the past week at Prof. H. C. Ostien's. Mrs. G. T. Treadgold of the same city came also during the latter part of the week and on Sunday Mr. Treadgold arrived for a brief call. Mr. Treadgold is city attorney of Bandon and one of the leading citizens of that city. It was his first visit to this part of the Willamette valley and he expressed himself as well pleased with our locality. The Herald editor received a visit from him and spent a very pleasant hour or so recalling Bandon days.

Magazines Going Up

Mrs. E. R. Ostrom, local agent Hansen Magazine Agency, wishes to state that there will be a sharp advance in magazine prices about Nov. 1. So make up your list as soon as possible and I will call for your order before that date. Lowest prices guaranteed. Patronize home industry! Phone Farm 3613.

Monmouth Heights

Mr. and Mrs. Auld and family of Portland are visiting Mrs. Auld's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cheseboro.

P. L. Fishback was at Falls City on business Saturday.

Dale Hill of Monmouth was a Sunday visitor with Milt Bosley and wife.

Rose Page, teacher of the Sunny Slope school, attended the teachers' institute in Dallas this week.

Two Riggle boys of Independence were in our vicinity the first of the week.

A debating and literary society was organized at the Sunny Slope school house last Saturday evening.

Will and Clem Fishback are building a barn for J. B. Stump, this being the second one they have erected for him this summer.

Myrtle Housman and Golda Eggleston of Monmouth visited

Monmouth, Oreg., Sept. 29, 1916

Mr. Careful Buyer:

Dear Sir:

We have just received a line of the well known "OREGON CASSIMERE" suits for men. These suits, with an extra pair of trousers, we have priced at Fifteen Dollars.

They ought not to linger long at this price so come in right away to select yours.

Yours truly,

The Miller Store

ALLEN T. CLARK

The Exclusive Grocer

PHONE 302

COMING! Reese Bros. Africanders

15 - PEOPLE - 15
Band and Orchestra
Musical Comedy, Minstrel and Jubilee Singers

SOUTHLAND Music, Songs, Dances, Comedy and Vaudeville

A Musical and Novelty performance that will delight and instruct you.

If Laughing Hurts you, Stay Away

Norm Theater, October 17

Tuesday night, only

Popular Prices. Seats on sale at usual place
Noonday Band Parade

their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bosley, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Calbreath were traders in Monmouth Saturday.

Misses Anna and Ella Lefever were Dallas visitors Saturday.

Miss Ina Fishback who is assisting C. C. Mulkey in his bakery at Monmouth, spent Sunday with her brothers here.

Mrs. A. J. Shipley and daughter Naomi visited relatives in Falls City Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Osborne and son Richard and daughter Frances after spending several days with Mrs. Osborne's brother, Clarence Marks of Canby, returned home Monday.

THE SCHOOL BELL!

Suggests "MORLAN'S"

School Books,
Pencils, Tablets, Paper,
School Supplies

MORLAN & SON

"Monmouth's Largest and Most Complete Confectionery and Book Store."