President to Speak

The evening service at the Evangelical church next Sunday promises a treat for all who attend. The young people's societies of the three churches will join in a meeting which begins at 7 o'clock sharp. The speaker of the evening is the Rev. Geo. Johnson of Cleveland, Ohio, who is touring the west in the interest of the Young People's Alliance work. He will give an inspirational address on the subject, "Christians for the Times." He is an inspiring speaker and you cannot afford to miss this opportunity of hearing him. A freewill offering will be received.

DR. FOSTER CHIROPRACTIC

has opened a treating room at the Monmouth Hotel where all who desire treatment will find him on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week. All day. Electricity in all forms is used in his practice. Electric blankets and general treatments. For deafness he seldom fails. Lady attendant.

Local Brevities

J. W. White and wife and son Orville and wife and son have returned from Tillamook and will not go back until the first of the year.

Rev. H. Schuknecht of Portland, Presiding Elder, will preach at the Evangelical church tomorrow night at 7:30. Also Sunday morning at 11.

P. D. Quisenberry of Newberg was one of the spectators at the great foot ball game at Corvallis last Saturday, stopping at Monmouth going and coming. He spent Sunday with friends here.

Hugo Bibberstein of Tillamook has started east on a vacation trip through the northern states that will include Minneapolis, Chicago and New York. He expects to be gone until after Christmas.

Mrs. D. E. Stitt left Sunday for Portland where she will visit with a niece for a week and from there will go to Astoria for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Sowash, and where she plans to spend the winter.

Prosperity in Morlan's store is reflected in the new cash register which made its appearance there last Saturday. Morlans are developing musical instruments as a side line and have recently added a piano to their stock in trade.

According to the health officer there were at the beginning of the week three different contagious diseases represented in the city, diphtheria, measles and scarlet fever. All of the cases are quarantined and all reasonable precautions are being taken to prevent the spread of the contagion.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Hartley Mulkey were held from the Christian church last Friday afternoon. Rev. W. A. Elkins preached the sermon. There was a large attendance of friends of the deceased gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to her memory. Burial was in the K. P. cemetery.

A fire alarm was turned in Monday which got a run out of the fire department up the sidewalk along Main street to the railroad crossing. There it developed the alarm had been to hasty and the fire cart was returned to its quarters in the city hall. The alarm came from the residence occupied by Miss Rosa B. Parrott. The chimney flue caught fire but burned itself out without further damage.

The men of the Grange who are to prepare the dinner at the next Grange meeting, December 9th, will have an unusual advantage that day. December 9 is also the date of the Sale of Cooked Food and Bazaar which the Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical church will hold in Winegar & Lorence's store. The public is cordially invited to attend this sale where many attractive things will be offered.

The front of the garage of Graham & Son is now ornamented by a gasoline fountain to meet the needs of the traveler when he commences to travel once more. A conspicuous feature of the arrangement at night is its illuminated top. The tank which holds the gasoline was sunk in the parking space near by, a short time ago when the ground became saturated and the tank took a notion to rise bringing its covering of earth with it. The grave was reopened this week
