Monmouth veterans were made happy Monday by receiving checks from Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Fred Olson entertained a few young people informally on Friday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Bonnie Olson, who is teaching at Waconda and who was home at that time for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dykstra have moved to Independence where they will reside while attending the Oregon Normal School. Prof. Benjamin, having been released from service on the "Border," succeeds Mr. Dykstra at the Salem Heights school.

The school census of Dallas falls 50 short of the number found by the census taker last year.

A company of four of Monmouth's talent went over to Independence Tuesday night and assisted in organizing a 30-piece band in that town. The four were Ed Lorence, Howard Morlan, Ervin Stewart and R. Dobell, and the latter was made director.

Monmouth Heights

Ed Rogers and family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Fisk and wife of Monmouth.

Miss Rose Page spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Yamhill.

Walter Johnson was a business visitor to Independence one day last week.

Mr. Comstock had business which called him to Portland Friday.

Noah Heffley shipped nine hogs to Portland last Friday.

William Fishback returned

W. G. Shaffer of Independence raised 15,225 pounds of beans on 13 acres. He has sold all but 700 pounds of the crop, realizing thus far $1,065 for the same.

Being about to leave Independence, Mrs. O. F. Coper has resigned the presidency of the Civic Improvement League of that city.

Miss M. S. Campbell and Miss Carrie B. Stump were registered at Hotel Portland in Portland the latter part of last week.
