

For 1917

We will be pleased to furnish you with anything in the DRUG Line

Perkins' Pharmacy

If we haven't got it we'll get it. Ask us.

Items of Interest

Ted McKenzie of Pedee is in town this week.

R. A. Alderson spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Ferguson, in Portland.

The Civic club is centering its attention on a Clean-up day of which, more later.

A movement is on foot to organize another woman's club in Monmouth, object chiefly social.

Miss Mary Lawson, a nurse of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. John Riddell a few days this week.

H. K. Sickafosse, Grand Herald of the Oregon Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., has been appointed a special deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge and will pay an official visit to Alsea, Feb. 10th, to Buena Vista, Feb. 14th, to King's Valley, Feb. 17th, and to Ballston, Feb. 21. Mr. Sickafosse joined the encampment of the I. O. O. F. at Dallas Monday night.

Mrs. D. A. Wade of Brownsville is a visitor with her daughter, Miss Gladys Wade, in Monmouth this week.

Harry Brookhart, who is teaching in the junior high school at Albany, was a visitor in Monmouth Saturday.

Mr. Taylor of the O. A. C. horticultural extension department at Corvallis was a visitor in Monmouth Monday, the guest of A. B. Morlan.

The following are the delegates of the Evangelical Sunday school to the convention in Independence the latter part of this week: Rev. Fisher, Mrs. C. E. George and Mrs. U. G. Heffley.

Mrs. C. A. Cook and children, who have been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Richards, have gone to Multnomah where they will live. Mr. Cook has secured work in Portland.

The Hawaiian entertainment at the Norm theater Wednesday night was largely attended and all were well satisfied with the performance.

George Walker's genial smile is illuminating our streets once more, he having been released from the measles quarantine after a two weeks siege. This closes the measles epidemic in Monmouth.

Miss Frances Cooper, a former Normal student and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper of Independence, was married Saturday to John Krause, a wealthy rancher of Aurora. Dr. Polling of Dallas officiated and there were about 50 out of town guests.

Mrs. Mary Stine of Monmouth acted as caterer at the wedding breakfast.

Christian Church Notes

"Vitality in Religion" will be the morning subject. Chalk picture.

"Distress of Nations" will be the evening subject. Are we in the "last days" of prophecy?

Bible School at 10 a. m.

Senior and Junior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Mid-week service Wednesday evening.

Remember the evangelistic services are to begin Feb. 18th. C. F. Swander of Portland will preach the first sermon. Rev. Stevens has been selected as song leader.

Glenn Work is home from his school experience at The Dalles and plans to attend the state university at Eugene.

H. S. Portwood entertained his brother, during the week-end, of the legislature, the latter being a member of that body, representing the counties of Sherman, Gilliam and Wheeler. Senator Smith of Coos county was also here at the same time visiting with his brother, Rufus Smith.

The rooms of the Odd Fellows, in the post office block, was furnished this week with a piano, purchased through donations among individual Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. The piano was purchased of Mrs. Beckley, and although second hand, is in good condition. It replaces an organ, the property of the Rebekahs, which has done valiant service for some time.

Our Bargain Column

Wanted—A lady canvasser to handle household articles of general use in Monmouth and vicinity. Apply at Herald office. 22tf Jersey cow for sale cheap. Must sell because I lack time to care for her. Mrs. Olson.

Blue Guineas for sale. W. L. Craig, first house west of dormitory. 21t3

Registered Duroc boar for service, $1.50. Breeding subject to registration $2.50. A. H. Craven

Good plow horse, buggy and harness for sale for $60. Worth $100. T. L. Burns, in Dornsife house on Broad street. 14tf

Housewives—housekeepers. Milk at 6 cts. a quart; cream at 15 cts. a pint. Deliveries night or morning as preferred. I retail milk from my herd only. Sample furnished free. Phone or call, M. Sacre.

Second Hand Goods

Going and Coming

One block north of Baptist church

J. D. Stevens

HARDEMAN HATS

Better Hats for Men

Hardeman Hats are stylish. Their good qualities will bring you back for another of the same brand when in need of a new hat.

Price $3.50

The Miller Store

Watch Talk

Our $3.50 and $6.00 Reliance Watches fit more pocketbooks and tastes and gives more all around satisfaction than any other watch of like price and grade.

WALTER G. BROWN,

Watch Repairer and Jeweler.

Perkins Pharmacy.

THE BOOK YOU'VE BEEN LOOKING FOR

"THE VETERINARIAN" by Dr. CHAS. J. KORINEK

Ex-State Veterinarian of Oregon and Ex-President Oregon State Veterinary Medical Board

A treatise on the diseases of domestic animals, written with the primary purpose of placing in the hands of stock owners a book of practical worth. All technical language or terms as used by the professional veterinarian have been eliminated and only such language used as all may read and understand.

256 Pages - 30 Charts and Illustrations - 50 Subjects

Covering diseases of horses, cattle, swine, sheep, goats, and poultry, their causes, symptoms and treatment. Also numerous tables and formulas on drugs and their uses, gestation periods, temperature of animals, hereditary tendencies and a volume of other valuable facts and figures summed up for handy reference. A handsome cloth bound volume, printed on the best quality of book paper and beautifully illustrated.

This book is a veritable encyclopedia of veterinary knowledge written by one of the foremost veterinarians in the profession today. "The Veterinarian" should be in the library of every farmer, stockman and poultryman. It is the last word in veterinary science, a revelation to the adept and a guide to the beginner. It is being read and studied in schools and colleges and more than 50,000 copies are now in the hands of the best stockmen in America. It is valuable alike to the man who owns one animal or a hundred.

"The Veterinarian" is being offered for the first time to readers of the Pacific Homestead. Although thousands of copies have been sold at the full price of $2.50 each the exclusive right has been secured for Homestead readers. We have purchased in such enormous quantities that we can afford to give the book free.

to our Readers. Free! Free! Free!

The Pacific Homestead, the leading farm paper of the Northwest

It is published in the interest of the farmer who believes in up-to-date and modern methods. Each issue contains valuable information on dairying, agriculture, horticulture, stockraising and articles on poultry, bees, garden and the home. Edited by men who are recognized as leaders in their particular line. No expense spared in putting out a clean, newsy and wholesome paper. It is printed on a fine quality of book paper, illustrated with real cuts and photographs.

The fact that it goes into 18000 homes in the Northwest each week and is read from cover to cover by every member of the family is an argument in its favor. 52 big issues a year with four special editions.

Here is the way to get your copy of "The Veterinarian" Fill out the coupon below, send $1 for the Pacific Homestead one year and the book will be sent to your address, post paid.

THE PACIFIC HOMESTEAD
Salem, Oregon

As per your offer, I enclose herewith $1 for subscription one year and you are to send me a copy of your book "The Veterinarian" as a free premium.

Name

Postoffice

M H R. F. D. State

Blossom Time in the Golden State

A friend just back from Southern California says: "The weather was fine, in fact too warm for heavy clothes. Many were bathing at the beaches. Oranges were ripe in the valleys while the mountains nearby were covered with snow."

With warm sunny weather it will not be long before the blossoms on the trees will be everywhere announcing that spring time is here.

Take a vacation trip now where life is different; where climate surroundings and amusements are out of the ordinary.

Spend a different February.

Three Trains Daily

Scenic Shasta Route

will take you there in comfort
Ask the agent

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent, Portland

Southern Pacific Lines